novel is an enduringly popular genre that raises crucial questions about key literary concepts fact and fiction identity history reading and writing In this comprehensive focused guide Jerome de Groot offers an accessible introduction to the genre and critical debates that surround it including the development of the historical novel from early eighteenth century works through to postmodern and contemporary historical fiction different genres such as sensational or low fiction crime novels literary works counterfactual writing and related issues of audience value and authenticity the many functions of historical fiction particularly the challenges it poses to accepted histories and postmodern questioning of grand narratives the relationship of the historical novel to the wider cultural sphere with reference to historical theory the internet television and film key theoretical concepts such as the authentic fallacy postcolonialism Marxism queer and feminist reading Drawing on a wide range of examples from across the centuries and around the globe The Historical Novel is essential reading for students exploring the interface of history and fiction Gabriel García Márquez Jay Corwin,2016-08-29 Gabriel García Márquez is considered one of the most significant authors in the Spanish language Rising to prominence with One Hundred Years of Solitude his fiction is widely read and studied throughout the world This invaluable Guide gives a wide ranging but in depth survey of the global debate over García Márquez's fiction It explores the major critical responses to his key works devoting two whole chapters to One Hundred Years of Solitude It also examines García Márquez's lesser known short fiction his place in the Boom magical realism and his influence on other writers Jay Corwin discusses both European and US centric interpretations balancing these with indigenous and Hispanic contexts to give the reader an overarching understanding of the global reception of García Márquez's work Gabriel García Márquez's One Hundred Years of Solitude Gabriel García Márquez,2014-05-14 Presents a collection of critical essays about Márquez's One hundred years of solitude The Novel André Brink,1998-04-30 The postmodernist novel is renowned for the extremes of its narcissistic involvement with language but in this book the author argues that this self consciousness has been a characteristic of the novel since its earliest stirrings Gabriel García Márquez Michael Bell,1993-10-05 Much good criticism of Márquez came in the wake of One Hundred Years of Solitude and the perception of his fiction has been dominated by that novel It seemed the implicit goal to which the earlier fiction has been striving By concentrating on the later novels including The General in his Labyrinth this study brings out the internal dialogue between the novels so that One Hundred Years of Solitude then stands out like Don Quixote in Cervantes oeuvre as untypical yet more deeply representative Behind the popular impact of its magical realism lies Márquez abiding meditation on the nature of fictional and historical truth Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje's Fiction Julie Mehta,Harish Mehta,2024-09-13 Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje's Fiction is a comprehensive study of the novels of the Sri Lankan Canadian author and poet Michael Ondaatje This survey of the Booker Prize winning novelist's works locates him as a powerful voice that urges globalization and multiculturalism in a world that is closing its borders It reconnoitres Ondaatje's search for a homeland by cracking open the core of his evocative inventive and innovative concepts that undergird his art of storytelling The contributors in this volume examine themes such as literary cosmopolitanism Sri Lankan identity diasporic identity race and racism home and belonging trauma in the Sri Lankan civil war war games and uncertainty theory An important contribution to Ondaatje studies the book is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of Sri Lankan literature diasporic and world literatures South Asian and Canadian studies cultural studies postcolonial fiction and history      Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies      The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 7, Modernism and the New Criticism George Alexander Kennedy, 1989 The history of the most hotly debated areas of literary theory including structuralism and deconstruction      LatCrit Francisco Valdes, Steven W. Bender, 2021-06-15 This book comprehensively but succinctly tells the story of LatCrit's emergence and sustainable presence as a scholarly and activist community within and beyond the US legal academy finding its place alongside such other schools of critical legal knowledge as Feminist Legal Theory and Critical Race Theory that aim to combust social and legal transformative change      Bibliographic Guide to Gabriel García Márquez, 1992-2002 Nelly S. de Gonzalez, 2003-08-30 With this latest installment Nelly Sfeir v de Gonzalez has completed her trilogy of bibliographies on Gabriel Garcia Marquez Born in Colombia in 1927 Garcia Marquez has become one of the most outstanding and influential novelists of the 20th century He has received numerous awards including the 1982 Nobel Prize for Literature His work has generated an enormous amount of scholarship and his writings are part of the curricula taught in most American colleges and universities This third volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of books articles and non print materials by and about Garcia Marquez published between 1992 and 2002 The first part consists of primary sources by Garcia Marquez while the second part brings together entries for secondary sources including reviews      Translation and Culture Katherine M. Faull, 2004 How we view the foreign presented either in the interrelated forms of culture language or text determines to a large degree the way in which we translate This volume of essays examines the cultural politics of translation that have determined the production and dissemination of the foreign in domestic cultures as varied as contemporary North America Europe and Israel The essays address from a variety of theoretical perspectives the question posed almost two hundred years ago by the German philosopher Friedrich Schleiermacher of whether the translator should foreignize the domestic or domesticate the foreign      Locating Gender in Modernism Geetha Ramanathan, 2012 This book visits modernism within a comparative gendered and third world framework questioning current scholarly categorisations of modernism and reframing our conception of what constitutes modernist aesthetics It describes the construction of modernist studies and argues that despite a range of interventions which suggest that philosophical and material articulations with the third world shaped modernism an emphasis on modernist universals persists Ramanathan argues that women and third world authors have reshaped received notions of the modern and revised orthodox ideas on the modern aesthetic Authors such as Bessie Head Josiane Racine T Obinkaram Echewa Raja Rao Gabriel Garcia Marquez Sembene Ousmane Salman Rushdie Ana Castillo Attia Hossain Bapsi Sidhwa and Sahar Khalifeh are visited in their specific cultural contexts and use some form of realism a mode that western modernism relegates to the nineteenth century A comparative methodology and extensive research on intersecting topics such as post coloniality and the articulation between gender and modernist aesthetics facilitates readings of the modern in twentieth century literature that fall outside standards of western modernism Considering the relationship between aesthetics and ideology Ramanathan lays out a critical apparatus to enhance our understanding of the modern thus suggesting that form is not universal but that the history of forms like the history of colonialism and of women indicates very specific modalities of the modern

The Theory and Practice of Reception Study Philip Goldstein, 2022-04-21 This book examines novels of Faulkner and Morrison as well as Mark Twain and Ralph Ellison in order to show that their works forcefully undermine the racial and sexual divisions characterizing both the South and contemporary culture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Moreover the book discusses theories of reader response and reception study and elaborates a theory of reception study based on the historical or archeological methods of Michel Foucault As a consequence unlike most studies of American literature which discuss its historical contexts or prescribe its readers responses this book explains the reception of these works including the academic criticism and reviews and because the internet exerts immense influence in the twenty first century the on line responses of ordinary readers Unlike most reception studies this book examines the institutional contexts of the readers responses

This Book Will Change Your Life Ben Carey, 2003-10-28 Is the year ahead looking much the same as the last Another 365 day grind of meetings dinner dates and deadlines If so try this book the perfect gift for the adventurous reader Part instruction manual part therapy part religious cult part sheer anarchy This Book Will Change Your Life will help you poke a stick in the spokes of your routine It is not the soft hearted kind of book that is interested in what you have to say rather it contains 365 daily orders each one of which could turn your humdrum existence into a daily free fall Whether learning to tell one joke properly spending an hour talking to a tree or choosing a motto to live by This Book Will Change Your Life will lead you to make every day of the next year the first day of your new life

Culture in the Age of Three Worlds Michael Denning, 2004 Denning analyses the political and intellectual battles over the meanings of culture
