Contemporary Canadian Literature and Intercultural Learning. Analyzing Louise Penny's novel "Bury Your Dead" Matthias Dickert et al.,2013-11-06 Anthology from the year 2013 in the subject American Studies Culture and Applied Geography language English abstract Canada has only recently become a topic of literary interest in modern grammar schools in Hessen It was thus logical that schools teachers and students were confronted with a fairly unknown topic that belongs to what is referred too as English speaking literature Canadian literature is strictly speaking part of what is commonly considered to be Literature of the Colonies a term that sums up literature from Africa Asia Australia Canada and New Zealand Canada in this respect still holds a key position for European readers simply because of its historic links to England and France and its deep roots in native elements all of which seem to have enriched its historical cultural and literary variety All three influences have contributed to the key term of present Canadian literature which seems to focus on the concept of survival and its manifold presentations in past and present day Canadian writing It is thus not astonishing to spot this notion of survival in all types of writing and detective stories in general also do not seem to be an exception It is therefore natural for the reader to trace and find this notion in Louise Penny s novels too Louise Penny herself is considered to be one if not the most outstanding contemporary Canadian representative of this type of writing and it was simply a question of time when she came into the focus of public attention Books like Still Life 2005 Dead Cold 2006 The Cruellest Month 2007 The Murder Stone 2008 The Brutal Telling 2009 Bury Your Dead 2010 A Trick of the Light 2011 soon gained her the reputation of a fine writer Most of her novels however include another aspect central for modern language learning in the so-called Oberstufe The talk here is about what is generally called Intercultural Teaching and Learning because the critical reader working here gains a lot of historical cultural and social insight into Canada and the Canadian soul It is at this crossroad where Penny steps in With the elegance of a Shakespearian pen of the 21st century she presents various characters and thus teachers and students alike can learn a lot about the different dimensions individual and collective of the Canadian psyche This results in knowledge feeling and respect for Canada and Canadian mentality which are conveyed in a convincing and authentic way The Linking Ring ,1929

form of a text affect its meaning How do books shape political and religious movements How have the economics of the book trade and copyright shaped the literary canon Who has been included in and excluded from the world of books and why The Book in Britain A Historical Introduction will appeal to all scholars students and historians interested in the written word and its continued production and presentation Lady Rivendale's Connections Box Set, Books 1 to 3 Jo

What makes fiction recognizable as fiction Texts are shaped by their material print but this book argues that they can also be made in response to it that the needs of the magazine in the nineteenth century spurred writers to create hybrid entangled texts Using book history genre theory and literary close reading this book argues that narrative fiction in the nineteenth century popular periodical was a malleable substance By looking at typography and the attempts to squeeze in too much text or stretch out too little text the book asks what the relationship was between the page that needed filling and the short story that tried to fill it In the messy hybrids and outliers we explore what fiction might have become The book works with magazines like the Englishwoman's Domestic Magazine first series 1852-59 the Family Herald 1842-1945 the Home Circle 1849-54 and authors like Elizabeth Gaskell George Augustus Sala and Samuel Beeton It also includes a chapter on Charles Dickens's arguably least successful venture Master Humphrey's Clock 1840-1 where Dickens was noticeably straining to sell and fill a weekly magazine While the book is not attempting to destabilise the status of canonical fiction it does ask how the page makes fiction happen what kind of readers magazines imagined for themselves and what readers thought they were reading when they picked up an issue The book argues that magazines projected a print imaginary a symbolic realm where the magazine fits perfectly into the lives of happy active readers
