The Case of the Disappearing Gauguin Stephanie A. Brown, 2024-07-23 A globetrotting Gold Rush heiress An awkward Paris schoolmaster A celebrated French actor And a museum of history and art in California's Central Valley What do they have in common They are all connected by an oil painting a still life called Flowers and Fruit that may or may not have been painted by the post Impressionist Paul Gauguin In the decade that museums began to collect modern art Flowers and Fruit traveled the art market in Paris and New York Experts and connoisseurs hailed it as a signature work of Gauguin just as he came to be acknowledged as a master When it joined the Haggin Museum in Stockton California locals treasured it as the Museum's Gauguin But by 1964 Gauguin scholars and experts in Paris and New York had lost track of the painting and declared it lost When it resurfaced in 2018 they questioned its authenticity How could a genuine Gauguin have been hiding in plain sight in a provincial American museum Is Flowers and Fruit a forgery or is it authentic Follow along as historian curator and professor of museum studies Dr Stephanie Brown traces the unlikely history of the painting Using never before seen archives and making new connections Brown writes the biography of a painting and explores what we mean by authenticity and who gets to define it Now undergoing technical examination as a result of Dr Brown's findings Flowers and Fruit has embarked on a new chapter of its life If the painting is authentic it will be the most valuable painting in the Haggin's collection and one of the most important paintings in California And if the painting is a forgery who was the forger
