Rosmini's Contribution to Ethical Philosophy (Classic Reprint) John Favata Bruno, 2018-02-02 Excerpt from Rosmini's Contribution to Ethical Philosophy Thus if we want to know the meaning character and value of a philosophical system we must replace it in its historical frame in its natural background We must regard it as the mental attitude which the philosopher assumed towards the problems which were in the air when he lived Only thus can we retrace the genesis of his ideas his fundamental thought and the leading motive of his intellectual efforts Only then may we have the surest basis for understanding and appreciating his doctrine To regard it as something merely abstract and isolated from human conditions as independent of its author's universe of life and love aloof from his reality and experience or divorced from and unrelated to the demands and interests of his social milieu would lead to inevitable failure About the Publisher Forgotten Books
