Drawing and Painting for Beginners Part 2 A Beginner s Guide Table of Contents Introduction Chapter 1 Getting started Materials Easel Folding stool Other materials Chapter 3 Texture of trees wood grass stone cloud and water Drawing Foliage The texture of bark The texture of rocks The texture of clouds The texture of water Composition when drawing outdoors Rule of thirds Golden section Breaking the rules Conclusion Author Bio Publisher Introduction En Plein Aire Open air or outdoor drawing is quite a vast subject It can be quite daunting at first but with a bit of forethought and planning it may become your favorite kind of work as an artist The first thing you must remember is that no matter how organized you try to be things can and often do go wrong and many factors are simply out of your control You can t control the sun wind rain or variable light Which hour of the day do you like best Morning when it s sharp and the shadows are long Noon when it s bright and there is very little shadow at all Or twilight when the light is fading What do you do if it rains Expect the unexpected and have a Plan B You may even end up painting in the car but that s OK do whatever it takes to get the job done The results of all this agony though should be well worth it a vivid impression of a moment in time in spite of everything that Mother Nature can throw at you Sometimes the best work happens spontaneously and not in the carefully controlled atmosphere of a studio where you have all your creature comforts around you For the purposes of this book we re working in black and white We ll tackle paints pastels and colored pencils later

Learn How to Draw Land Animals - For the Absolute Beginner John Davidson, 2013-05-15

Learn How to Draw Land Animals For the Absolute Beginner TABLE OF CONTENTS Introduction Drawing tools Sketching Animals The contour shape The planes Details Furs Raccoon Lion Bison Texture Armadillo Elephant Prints Tiger Shading Linear shading Imaginary light source Tapir Smeared shading Hippopotamus Rhinoceros Gaur Sketching Animals The contour shape To properly construct the figure of any subject you want to illustrate observe the structure of its form and find what kind of shape that can resemble its body structure The idea is to have a basis for portraying the mass of the figure The basic shapes can be easily positioned upon your desired perspective or point of view Obtain the most basic form of the animal you are going to draw Use the basic form as a reference for constructing the main outline The main outline is the most important element for the subject to be distinguishable Remember that the basic figure basic shapes is mainly a basis for its mass in the simplest form this is just a way for you to see the subject as a multidimensional figure and any change in position will gradually change the manner of how the figure should be outlined The primary outline may overlap replace or replicate the basic figure If the portions of your animal are smoothly spherical circles used to simplify the form then the primary outline would simply overlap or replicate the simplified form but if the part has ridges such as the face of the animal nose eyeholes cheeks etc then the basic form should be modified to illustrate the exact shape of the head The basic forms will be your guide to properly lay out each linear shade Observe the first sphere The linear shades do not bend properly with the contour shape but it can show the dimensions by leaving the center of the sphere unmarked These are hatches that use the point of light as a reference The linear shades on the second sphere bend with the contour shape of the figure The lines show the proportions by interpreting the form by flowing with it These hatches use the point of light and the manner of its bend to show dimensions If you are going to use a single set of hatches to shade the subject use the method of the second sphere and then use the method of the first sphere to darken and enforce the visual depth Thin and light linings are used to portray the dimensional shape Follow the contour figure of the basic form to properly portray the shade values according to its perspective
