Europe Outlines of European Literature, from the Earliest Times ... F. Thorpe, 1856 Literary Cosmopolitanism in the English Fin de Siècle Stefano Evangelista, 2021-07-22 The fin de siècle witnessed an extensive and heated debate about cosmopolitanism which transformed readers attitudes towards national identity foreign literatures translation and the idea of world literature Focussing on literature written in English Literary Cosmopolitanism in the English Fin de Siècle offers a critical examination of cosmopolitanism as a distinctive feature of the literary modernity of this important period of transition No longer conceived purely as an abstract philosophical ideal cosmopolitanism or world citizenship informed the actual living practices of authors and readers who sought new ways of relating local and global identities in an increasingly interconnected world The book presents literary cosmopolitanism as a field of debate and controversy While some writers and readers embraced the creative imaginative emotional and political potentials of world citizenship hostile critics denounced it as a politically and morally suspect ideal and stressed instead the responsibilities of literature towards the nation In this age of empire and rising nationalism world citizenship came to enshrine a paradox it simultaneously connoted positions of privilege and marginality connectivity and non belonging Chapters on Oscar Wilde Lafcadio Hearn George Egerton the periodical press and artificial languages bring to light the variety of literary responses to the idea of world citizenship that proliferated at the turn of the twentieth century The book interrogates cosmopolitanism as a liberal ideology that celebrates human diversity and as a social identity linked to worldliness it investigates its effect on gender ethics and the emotions It presents the literature of the fin de siècle as a dynamic space of exchange and mediation and argues that our own approach to literary studies should become less national in focus Columbia University Bulletin Columbia University, 1917 Paperbound Books in Print, 1992 An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: General studies Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity The bibliography is published in three parts Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 and Volume 3 Prose Poetry Miscellaneous 978 0 947623 83 8 are also now available Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia Norwich
