Roget,1990 Waterstone's Guide to Books Waterstone & Co,1988 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Performing the Everyday in Henry James's Late Novels Maya Higashi Wakana,2016-05-13 Focusing on James's last three completed novels The Ambassadors The Wings of the Dove and The Golden Bowl Maya Higashi Wakana shows how a microsociological approach to James's novels radically revises the widespread tradition of putting James's characters into historical and cultural contexts Wakana begins with the premise that day to day living is inherently theatrical and thus duplicitous and goes on to show that James's art relies significantly on his powerful sense of the agonizing and even dangerous complications of mundane face to face rituals that pervade his work Centrally informed by social thinkers such as G H Mead and Erving Goffman Wakana's study discloses the richness complexity and singularity of the interpersonal connections depicted in James's late novels Persuasively argued and rich in original close readings her book makes an important contribution to James's studies and to theories of social interaction
