Cynthia J. Miller,A. Bowdoin Van Riper,2017-02-23 Explores the horrific side of consumption as it is portrayed in film and television from what and whom we eat to food that bites back The Qur'an and the Aesthetics of Premodern Arabic Prose Sarah R. bin Tyer,2016-09-10 This book approaches the Qur an as a primary source for delineating the definition of ugliness and by extension beauty and in turn establishing meaningful tools and terms for literary criticism within the discipline of classical Arabic literature adab Focusing on the aesthetic dimension of the Qur'an this methodology opens up new horizons for reading adab by reading the tradition from within the tradition and thereby examining issues of decontextualisation and the untranslatable This approach in turn invites Comparatists as well as Arabists to consider other means and perspectives for approaching adab besides the Bakhtinian carnival Applying this critical strategy to literary works as diverse as One Thousand and One Nights and The Epistle of Forgiveness Sarah R bin Tyeer aims to prove two major points how Bakhtin's aesthetics is anachronistic and therefore theoretically inappropriate when applied to certain literary works and how ultimately this literary methodology is sometimes used as a proxy for ungrounded and sometimes unfair arguments by other scholars preferred destination for immigrants from the global South Life in the land of la dolce vita has not seemed so sweet recently as Italy struggles with the cultural challenges caused by this surge in immigration Marvelous Bodies by Vetri Nathan explores thirteen key full length Italian films released between 1990 and 2010 that treat this remarkable moment of cultural role reversal through a plurality of styles In it Nathan argues that Italy sees itself as the quintessential internal Other of Western Europe and that this subalternity directly influences its cinematic response to immigrants Europe's external Others In framing his case to understand Italy's cinematic response to immigrants Nathan first explores some basic questions Who exactly is the Other in Italy Does Italy's own past partial alterity affect its present response to its newest subalterns Drawing on Homi Bhabha's writings and Italian cinematic history Nathan then posits the existence of marvelous bodies that are momentarily neither completely Italian nor completely immigrant This ambivalence of forms extends to the films themselves which tend to be generic hybrids The persistent curious presence of marvelous bodies and a pervasive generic hybridity enact Italy's own chronic ambivalence that results from its presence at the cultural crossroads of the Mediterranean

Showcasing the benefits of communal living as well as the frustrations of having decisions about meals public spaces and governance driven by the bottom line Petrovski delivers compelling suggestions for the transformation of an elder care system that more often than not condescends to older adults into one that puts people first a change that would benefit us all whether we are 40 60 80 or beyond
