Lovers Of Their Time:

Margaret Cavendish James Fitzmaurice, 2013-01-11 Margaret Cavendish 1623 1673 Duchess of Newcastle and one of the best known women writers of her time is enjoying a revival in the wake of Aphra Behn's canonization. She appears in the Norton Anthology of English Literature; her poetry will appear in a new edition and Penguin has recently reprinted her science fiction novel The Blazing World. This is an edition of her hilarious and rowdy letters unavailable since their original publication in 1664. Margaret Cavendish's Sociable Letters is a window into the world of 17th century marriage and daily life displaying a pleasing blend of the comic, the ironic, and the serious. Along the way, the author provides us with the first detailed criticism of Shakespeare's plays which she defends against the Restoration distaste for low characters. She also comments on food, home remedies, the English Civil Wars, religious fanaticism, street entertainers, churchgoing as a way to find a husband, and winter sports. This edition offers a full introduction to Cavendish's life and works, a bibliography, and detailed notes and takes account of hand corrections made at the author's behest. A Study Guide for D. H. Lawrence's "Sons and Lovers" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016-07-12 A Study Guide for D. H. Lawrence's Sons and Lovers excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students. This concise study guide includes plot summary, character analysis, author biography, study questions, historical context, suggestions for further reading, and much more. For any literature project, trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs. The Way of Lovers: The Oxford Anonymous Commentary on the Song of Songs (Bodleian Library, MS Opp. 625) Sara Japhet, Barry Dov Walfish, 2017-06-12 This extraordinary commentary by a late twelfth century anonymous northern French exegete interprets the Song of Songs solely according to its plain meaning as a story of two young lovers and their developing relationship. The exegete pays attention to every detail of the text, offering many enlightening insights into its meaning all the while expanding upon the way of lovers, the ways that young people in love go about their lovemaking. The French background of the exegete is made clear by numerous references to knights, coats of arms, weapons, chivalry, and of course wine drinking. The edition is accompanied by an English translation and extensive introduction which analyzes the various linguistic, literary, and exegetical features of the text. C.T. Hsia on Chinese Literature Chih-ting Hsia, 2004 Best known for the groundbreaking works A History of Modern Chinese Fiction 1961 and The Classic Chinese Novel 1968, C. T. Hsia has gathered sixteen essays and studies written during his Columbia years as a professor of Chinese literature. Wider in range and scope, C. T. Hsia on Chinese Literature stands beside his two earlier books as part of his critical legacy to all readers seriously interested in the subject. C. T. Hsia's writings on Chinese literature express a candor rare among his Western colleagues. Thus the first section of the book contains three essays that place Chinese literature in critical perspective, examining its substance and significance and questioning some of the critical approaches and methods adopted by Western sinologists for its study and appreciation. The second section has two essays on traditional drama: one on the Yuan masterpiece The Romance of the Western Chamber and the other a sophisticated study of the plays of the foremost Ming dramatist Tang Hsien-tsu The third section is the richest and longest of the book containing six essays on traditional and early modern fiction At least four of these on The Military Romance and the novels Flowers in the Mirror The Travels of Lao Tsan and Jade Pear Spirit are among the author's finest works Finally the fourth section of the book covering modern fiction includes one essay on the novel The Korchin Banner Plains an essay on women in Chinese communist fiction and three concise yet illuminating studies of the short story during the three republican decades before Mao the first dozen years under Mao and in Taiwan during the 1960s Select Works of the British Poets Robert Southey, 1831
