

The background of the cover features a soft, watercolor-style illustration of a person's back and shoulder, rendered in warm, muted tones of beige and cream. A dark green vertical band runs along the left edge. In the bottom left corner, a small portion of a red and white striped object, possibly a hat or a bag, is visible.

when Christ is at the center of a relationship even with serious challenges true love will triumph Despite my optimism about other parts of life I decided that love in this world had limits after all I d become convinced that no woman would want to marry such an obviously imperfect man as me As a boy growing up in Australia Nick Vujicic could not understand why God had allowed him to be born without limbs and if He would ever bring a woman into Nick s life On the other side of the world Kanae Miyahara a girl growing up in Mexico saw dysfunction sadly separate her family She wondered if a loving lasting marriage was even possible Later when Nick realized that God had a purpose for him his life took on new meaning But after a long term relationship ended in heartache would he ever find someone to marry Kanae experienced relationships based on superficial attraction but she longed to find a mate with strong character and faith a man who would be a godly husband and father When Nick and Kanae met in the most amazing way they realized that God the ultimate Matchmaker had used even their discouraging and painful experiences to prepare them for each other for the love of their life Twentieth-Century Fiction by Irish Women Heather Ingman,2017-03-02 During much of the twentieth century Irish women s position was on the boundaries of national life Using Julia Kristeva s theories of nationhood often particularly relevant to Ireland this study demonstrates that their marginalization was to women s and indeed the nation s advantage as Irish women writers used their voice to subvert received pieties both about women and about the Irish nation Kristevan theories of the other the foreigner the semiotic the mother and the sacred are explored in authors as diverse as Elizabeth Bowen Kate O Brien Edna O Brien Mary Dorcey Jennifer Johnston and Eilis Ni Dhuibhne as well as authors from Northern Ireland like Deirdre Madden Polly Devlin and Mary Morrissy These writers whose voices have frequently been sidelined or misunderstood because they write against the grain of their country s cultural heritage finally receive their due in this important contribution to Irish and gender studies A Letter Not Sent (한글 1권 1책) Jeong Ho-seung,2016-11-04 For the first time English language readers can access the poems of Jeong Ho seung who has become one of Korea s most beloved poets since his literary debut in 1973 A total of 216 poems spanning over 40 years of poetic growth were released in two collections presented side by side in English and Korean Loved by readers of all ages from teenagers to those in their 60s and 70s Jeong s poems tell of humanity s innate loneliness sadness longing love and pain In the words of the translator Jeong s poems may sometimes be challenging but above all they are moving enlightening and insightful Irish Women Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez,2005-11-30 Irish women writers have a large following and their works are attracting large amounts of scholarly and critical attention Through roughly 75 alphabetically arranged entries written by more than 35 expert contributors this reference overviews the lives and works of Irish women writers active in a range of genres and periods Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer s critical reception and a list of works by and about the author The volume closes with a selected general bibliography Ireland has an especially lively literary tradition and works by Irish writers have long been recognized as interesting and influential While male writers have received the bulk of the critical

'To Banish Ghost and Goblin' David Clark, Rubén Jarazo Álvarez, 2010-07-16 This book presents a series of essays on some of the most challenging issues which are facing Irish Studies scholars in the twenty-first century It aims to provide a variety of views on topics such as gender media the North and the revision of traditional approaches to Irish studies as seen by a number of scholars at the end of the first decade of the third millennium The breadth of scope is justified by the dynamic growth of the field over the last decade and points to the diverse academic and national backgrounds of the authors of the chapters and the enthusiasm with which the cultural concerns of the island of Ireland are tackled in other countries Writers from Austria Brazil Canada Germany and Spain provide original viewpoints on Irish topics which are as bold as they are refreshing The awareness of the unique situation of Ireland and her cultural practices has provided a scenario in which interest in the literature art film and other cultural manifestations is great and it is hoped that this volume will play a part in stimulating debate about some of the fascinating areas of Irish cultural matters discussed herein and will provide a useful work of reference for anyone interested in the rich and ample field of Irish Studies
