Are You Making Love or Just Having Sex? Elliot D. Cohen, 2024-10-15 In making love one is elevated beyond the carnal desires it satisfies For the religious it is Divine for those who are not religiously inclined it is still a spiritual experience one of seamless solidarity a unity of two as one that defies mere orgasmic stimulation You don t have to make love to have sex Even strangers can be sexually attracted and have an orgasmic escapade But in the act of making love there is symbolic meaning that is felt through and through the sex act Two in love are joined in life and the sexual expression of this unison is deeply felt in the sex act itself This is sexual intimacy the making of love the likes of which is rarely if ever seen outside a loving relationship There is no escape from the philosophical dimensions of such a loving relationship It is as abstract as it is concrete in the ideals that ground it There is a mystery about it a kind of transcendent experience that defies translation into words Making and being in love are thus joined at the hip Loving relationships make the bed in which true lovers sleep Unfortunately many relationships flounder or never get off the ground Just having sex may ease the tension but it then becomes a means not truly an end in itself The moment the sex act ends the couple may retreat and fall into discord It is an oasis in a barren desert that provides temporary relief a titillating temporary escape from reality This book can help you to overcome the obstacles the unlovable habits that encumber your relationship both inside and outside the bedroom It can help to create the harmonic balance between your sex life and other aspects of your personal and interpersonal relationships which are preludes to making and being in love To accomplish this it applies a five step method based on Logic Based Therapy Consultation LBTC a popular form of evidence based philosophical counseling modality First it introduces you to six types of unlovable ways of thinking and acting and helps you to identify the ones that may be sabotaging your own relationship Second it shows you how to counter these self defeating habits with certain lovable goals virtues of love Third it helps you to identify and embrace a personal love philosophy that empowers you to reach for your lovable goals Fourth it provides core philosophical ideas that are key to any successful quest for romantic love Fifth it helps you construct a behavioral plan that applies your philosophies to making constructive changes in your relationship The latter may require making changes both inside and outside your relationship Thus this book also shows you how the problems you are having in one area of your life at work in your social life etc can affect the quality of your relationship inside and outside the bedroom and it offers guidance including self improvement exercises to overcome these impediments and attain enduring love and sexual intimacy

Making Love in the Twelfth Century, 2016-04-29 New sparkling translations of the Letters of Two Lovers the Tegernsee Letters and selections from the Regensburg Songs Nine hundred years ago in Paris a teacher and his brilliant female student fell in love and chronicled their affair in a passionate correspondence Their 116 surviving letters some whole and some fragmentary are composed in eloquent highly rhetorical Latin Since their discovery in the late twentieth century the Letters of Two Lovers have aroused much attention because of their extreme rarity They constitute the longest correspondence by far between any two persons from the entire Middle Ages and they are private rather than institutional which means that according to all we know about the transmission of medieval letters they should not have survived at all Adding to their mystery the letters are copied anonymously in a single late fifteenth century manuscript although their style and range of reference place them squarely in the early twelfth century Can this collection of correspondence be the previously lost love letters of Abelard and Heloise And even if not what does it tell us about the lived experience of love in the twelfth century Barbara Newman contends that these teacher student exchanges bear witness to a culture that linked Latin pedagogy with the practice of ennobling love and the cult of friendship during a relatively brief period when women played an active part in that world Newman presents a new translation of these extraordinary letters along with a full commentary and two extended essays that parse their literary and intellectual contexts and chart the course of the doomed affair Included too are two other sets of twelfth century love epistles the Tegernsee Letters and selections from the Regensburg Songs Taken together they constitute a stunning contribution to the study of the history of emotions by one of our most prominent medievalists

Lovers for Life Roberta DeVille, Jard DeVille, 1980 It's Me and I'm Here! Harold C. Lyon, 1974 The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier, 2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians Fragments for Fractured Times Nicola Slee,2020-09-30 Nicola Slee one of the world s leading feminist practical theologians brings together 15 years of papers articles talks and sermons many of them previously unpublished Drawing on a wide and diverse range of her writing Slee demonstrates the richness and variety of feminist practical theological writing The Manifesto of an Aboriginal Descendant of North American Indigenous People Jesus Angel Carrera,2020-02-28 An inspirational group of poems that contains the social economical and political struggles of an individual Love and affection encountered on his path And most of all a way of expressing his free thinking ideas through creativity El Lector Araceli Tinajero,2010-02-15 El Lector will find a broad and appreciative audience and will become a landmark in the study of Cuban and Latin American cultures Roberto Gonz lez Echevarra a Yale University The practice of reading aloud has a long history And The tradition still survives in Cuba as a hard won right deeply embedded in cigar factory workers culture InEl Lector Araceli Tinajero deftly traces the evolution of the reader from nineteenth century Cuba To The present and its eventual dissemination to Tampa Key West Puerto Rico and Mexico In interviews with present day and retired readers she records testimonies that otherwise would have been lost forever creating a valuable archive for future historians Through a close examination of journals newspapers and personal interviews Tinajero relates how the reading was organized how the readers and readings were selected and how the process affected the relationship between workers and factory owners Because of the reader cigar factory workers were far more cultured and in touch with the political currents of the day than other workers But it was not only the reading material which provided political and literary information that yielded self education that influenced the workers the act of being read to increased the discipline and timing of the artisan s job Bob'S Trip Through Manhood Glenn G. Tucker,2016-01-14 Bob Brand was being raised by drunken brutal parents until he was fifteen years old He had a paper route like many young boys One night he refused to give his father the money he collected to pay his paper bill and was beaten badly by his father He escaped from the home and went to see an elderly doctor on his route to get help Dr Ted Woods sewed him up and called the police His father was arrested and given a year in jail and was allowed three days to get his affairs in order He and his wife fled and Dr Woods gained custody of Bob in a hearing Dr Woods hired Julia Finney to be his housekeeper Julia had a daughter Martha who was born when Julia was fifteen years old Both Julia and Martha suffered feelings of guilt and shame due to Julias background Bobs presence in his new family somehow seemed to knit the four people into a happy loving family and cured the feelings of shame guilt and inferiority held by both Julia and Martha As Dr Woods remarked Bob provided the glue to make them a happy loving family He also said Bob had gifts he was unaware he had Whenever he was near held or kissed a person they experienced great warmth and love He had the same effect on animals which had no fear of him and wanted to get close to him much to the amazement of Dr Woods and his family and bystanders Martha fell in love with Bob as did Julia but Julia knew the difference in the ages between Bob and her made it impossible for them to ever marry Bob fell in love with both Julia and Martha Martha fell deeply in love with Bob and constantly tried to seduce him believing when he did he would marry her even as young as they were This book is about the life of Bob and how he reacted when he lost first his wife Martha his second wife Julia and finally his housekeeper Peggy He finally with the help of Peggys daughter Cynthia discovers his hidden gift
