Low-income Life Styles Lola M. Irean, 1967

Masculinity and the English Working Class Ying Lee, 2016-05-06 This book examines representations of working class masculine subjectivity in Victorian autobiography and fiction In it Ying focuses on ideas of domesticity and the male body and demonstrates that working class masculinities differ substantially from those of the widely studied upper classes The book also maps the relationship between two trends the early nineteenth century efflorescence of published working class autobiographies in which working men construct their identities for a broad readership and a contemporaneous surge of public interest in the lower orders that finds reflection in the depiction of working class characters in popular novels by middle class authors The book mimics this point of convergence by pairing three working class autobiographies with three middle class novels Each chapter focuses on a particular type of work domestic service manual not artisanal labour and literary labour and the opportunities it offers for social advancement Ying considers the specific ways in which classed and gendered consciousness emerges autobiographically and its significance in the writing of working class subjectivity for public consumption Then mainstream novels by Charles Dickens Elizabeth Gaskell and Charles Kingsley are re read from the perspective of these autobiographical pressure points Bulletin ,1963 European and Chinese Sociologies ,2011-11-11 Sociology is subject to a process of internationalisation The rapid development of China has provided the China experience and shown the emergence of a new sociology In this book a dialogue between European and Chinese sociologists is opening up new horizons for Western thought in a context of economic and cultural globalisation The objective is to embark on a process of epistemological reconfiguration deconstructing reality on the basis of dividing up the world This book deals with some fundamental sociological issues modernities and globalisation class and society state and democracy economic change and inequalities in Europe and in China In the wake of the de colonial critique of post colonial studies the aim of this book is to examine the question of the de westernisation of knowledge in sociology Rural Poverty in the United States United States. National Advisory Commission on Rural Poverty,1968 Politics and African-American Ghettos Lenoard Ed Warren, The black ghetto is a byproduct of American social policy It came into being within policies that were adopted deliberately or inadvertently and will persist in the absence of drastic changes in policy Politics and African American Ghettos searches out the policy making processes that have created the ghetto and that maintain it Roland L Warren has assembled in this volume the work of researchers who examine complex forces and counter forces which result in perpetuating in our cities areas in which poverty poor housing inadequate education and involuntary segregation converge to form a black ghetto This work present a variety of points of view strongly held and at times hotly contested searching out the relevant policymaking processes in various sectors and levels of American society For example Norton Long discusses the ghetto s particular failing a social and political structure based on lower class culture and lacking strong middle class leaders Roland Warren suggests that the ghetto system does not make the individual part of the larger society but causes people to view it with fear and anger Robert Wood examines the way big city policy is made or left unmade in regard to ghettos Charles Adrian discusses the relation of state governments to city ghettos Daniel Elazar asserts that the current ferment for local control is a return to sound principles of American federalism based on noncentralization territorial democracy and partnership Charles Schottland documents the role of giant bureaucracies in the federal government and in nongovernmental organizations in influencing social welfare policy Whitney Young Jr indicates political pathways open to those who desire an active part in attacking the ghetto system This provocative work raises disturbing questions having to do with the processes through which American ghettos are created and sustained processes that must be altered if problems inherent in the black ghetto are to be attacked effectively For concerned students scholars and laymen it affords new insights into the phenomenon of the contemporary African American network and its perplexing durability Roland L Warren is professor emeritus at the Heller School of Social Policy and Management at Brandeis University He holds a Career Scientist Award from the National Institute of Mental Health and was a Guggenheim Fellow in community affairs in Stuttgart Germany Warren has published many scholarly articles and several books in the areas of community and planned social change

Behind Ghetto Walls Michael Novak, 2017-09-08 This book is about the family lives of some 10 000 children and adults who live in an all Negro public housing project in St Louis The Pruitt Igoe project is only one of the many environments in which urban Negro Americans lived in the 1960s but the character of the family life there shares much with the family life of lower class Negroes as it has been described by other investigators in other cities and at other times in Harlem Chicago New Orleans or Washington D C This book is primarily concerned with private life as it is lived from day to day in a federally built and supported slum The questions which are treated here have to do with the kinds of interpersonal relationships that develop in nuclear families the socialization processes that operate in families as children grow up in a slum environment the informal relationships of children and adolescents and adults with each other and finally the world views the existential framework arising from the life experiences of the Pruitt Igoeans and the ways they make use of this framework to order their experiences and make sense out of them The lives of these persons are examined in terms of life cycles Each child there is born into a constricted world the world of lower class Negro existence and as he grows he is shaped and directed by that existence through the day to day experiences and relationships available to him The crucial transition from child of a family to progenitor of a new family begins in adolescence and for this reason the book pays particular attention to how each new generation of parents expresses the cultural and social structural forces that formed it and continue to constrain its behavior

This book in short is about intimate personal life in a particular ghetto setting. It does not analyze the larger institutional, social, structural, and ideological forces that provide the social, economic, and political context in which lower class Negro life is lived. These larger macro sociological forces are treated in another volume based on research in the Pruitt Igoe community. However, this book does draw on the large body of literature on the structural position of Negroes in American society as background for its analysis of Pruitt Igoe private life.
