Aleksandr Sergeevich Pushkin,2017-07-04 Alexander Sergueievitch Pushkin came of a noble family so ancient that it was traced back to that Alexander Nevsky who in the thirteenth century gained a great victory over the Swedes upon the ice of the River Neva in token whereof he was surnamed Nevsky of the Neva His mother Nadejda Ossipovna Hannibal was the grand daughter of Abraham Petrovitch Hannibal Peter the Great s famous negro His father Surguei Lvovitch Pushkin was a frivolous man of pleasure The poet was born on the 26th of May 1799 at Moscow He was an awkward and a silent child He was educated by French tutors A poor scholar he read with eagerness whatever he could get in his father s library chiefly the works of French authors His brother states that at eleven years old Pushkin knew French literature by heart This cannot of course be taken Pg 2 literally but it shows under what influence he grew up In October 1811 he entered the Lyceum of Tsarskoe Selo Among the students a society was soon formed whose members were united by friendship and by a taste for literature They brought out several periodicals in which tales and poems formed the chief features Of this society the late Prince Gortchakoff belonged to it Pushkin was the leading spirit His first printed poem appeared in the Messenger of Europe in 1814 At a public competition in 1815 at which the veteran poet Derjavin was present Pushkin read his Memories of Tsarskoe Selo This poem which contains many beautiful passages so delighted Derjavin that he wished to embrace the young author but Pushkin fled in confusion from the hall In June 1817 Pushkin s free and careless student life ended After finishing his course at the Lyceum he went to St Petersburg and though he entered thoroughly into the dissipated pleasures of its turbulent youth he still clung to the intellectual society of such men as Jukovsky and Karamsin men occupied in literature whose friendship he valued very highly At that time society was much disturbed Political clubs were everywhere being formed In every drawing room new views were freely and openly advanced and in these discussions the Pg 3 satire and
