Lucas Samaras Lucas Samaras, 1983 Lucas Samaras, Photos Polaroid Photographs 1969-1983, 1983 Lucas Samaras, Photo-transformations Lucas Samaras, Arnold B. Glimcher, California State University, Long Beach. Art Galleries, 1975 This richly illustrated book documents the 1973-75 photographic work of Greek born American artist Lucas Samaras. The PHOTO TRANSFORMATIONS made with the Polaroid SX 70 camera represent the extension of his unique self-referential surrealist imagery into the medium of experimental photography. This new series of tableaux catalogued here for the first time demonstrates Samaras' versatility in the artistic exploration of the human condition through an almost hallucinatory examination of himself, his environment, and his fantasies. Photographer, painter, sculptor, Lucas Samaras is one of the most influential and provocative artists of our time. Once again available to readers, this long out of print volume presents a thorough compilation of Samaras's photographic work beginning with his earliest Auto Polaroids. This exhaustive body of work paved the way for a generation of contemporary photo artists expanding the expressive possibilities of the medium. Using Polaroid materials, large, sometimes life-sized formats, manipulated imagery, and composites, Samaras helped forge a vocabulary employed by artists and photographers throughout the eighties. In his most profound achievement, he adopted one of photography's basic genres, portraiture, and used it as a basis for an inquiry into the self which remains unmatched in its intensity and boundless in its ramifications. Photography critic Ben Lifson provides a trenchant critique and history of Samaras's work. Samaras split himself into model, actor, director, audience, and critic. Lifson writes, "To each of these roles he brought a skilled artist's hand and an eye deeply informed by the historical traditions and motifs of art and by the vernacular and popular traditions of photography." He became a rare figure in American art, not an artist who occasionally uses photography for tactical reasons, but an artist who made photography central to his aesthetic campaign. Art Of The Postmodern Era Irving Sandler, 2018-05-30 Sandler discusses the major and minor artists and their works, movements, ideas, attitudes, and styles, and the social and cultural context of the period. He covers post-modernist art theory, the art market, and consumer society. American and European art and artists are included.

Photography Mary Warner Marien, 2006 Each of the eight chapters takes a period of up to forty years and examines the medium through the lenses of art science, social science, travel, war, fashion, the mass media, and individual practitioners. Back Cover Impure Vision Moa Goysdotter, 2015-01-01 American staged art photography is the focus of this unique in-depth study. Offering a new methodological strategy for viewing photographs, this fascinating account analyzes the work of four of the leading names in this new genre: Les Krims, Duane Michals, Arthur Tress, and Lucas Samaras, and applies new perspectives to 1970s art photography. As it sheds fresh light on the four artists' critiques of purist ideals, it also looks closely at their efforts to transcend the limitations of the purely visual effect of photography. Not only does this book tell the history of American staged photography in broad terms by drawing on theories and methods new to the field but it also presents the latest approaches to photography history and theory

The Selfie, Temporality, and Contemporary Photography Claire Raymond, 2021-05-09 This book is a theoretical examination of the relationship between the face identity photography and temporality focusing on the temporal episteme of selfie practice Claire Raymond investigates how the selfie's involvement with time and self emerges from capitalist ideologies of identity and time The book leverages theories from Katharina Pistor Jacques Lacan Ragnvaldur Ingthorsson and Hans Belting to explore the ways in which the selfie imposes a dominant ideology on subjectivity by manipulating the affect of time The selfie is understood in contrast to the self portrait Artists discussed include James Tylor Shelley Niro Ellen Carey Graham MacIndoe and LaToya Ruby Frazier The book will be of interest to scholars working in visual culture history of photography and critical theory It will also appeal to scholars of philosophy and in particular of the intersection of aesthetic theory and theories of ontology epistemology and temporality
