Weergave van gesprekken met Joegoslavische kunstenaars aangevuld met een proeve van hun werk Naive Art in Yugoslavia Mirjana Gvozdanović, 1959 ELEVEN NAIVE ARTISTS FROM YUGOSLAVIA, 1986 Naive Art in Yugoslavia Galerija primitivne umjetnosti (Zagreb, Croatia), 1976 Naive Art in Yugoslavia, 197? Naive art (Naivno slikarstvo u Jugoslaviji', engl.) Paintings from Yugoslavia Boris Kelemen, 1977 Naive Art in Yugoslavia, 1976 Naive art of Yugoslavia today Vladimir Gudac, Mirko Juteršek, Boris Kelemen, 1977 The Fantastical World of Croatian Naive Art Vladimir Crnković, Božo Biškupić, 2000 The Fantastical World of Croatian Naive Art is part of the Museum's mission of presenting the very best examples of world art to our visitors and celebrates the beginning of a new millennium This exhibition is an ideal way to look back at the end of a century which saw the collapse of the Soviet Union the fall of the Berlin Wall and the breakup of communist Europe Two events in particular inspired this exhibition The first was Croatia's declaration of independence in 1991 which allowed me to return to my country and to meet with museum professionals government officials and the naive artists themselves The second was the beginning of a new millennium and the opportunity to bring the two countries I love closer together and to present this extraordinary tradition to a larger audience Croatian naive art was a perfect choice as these paintings vividly explore cultural memories While these paintings were created by artists often removed from the larger art world it is perhaps surprising that so many of them are anything but insular While rooted in Croatian rural life many are clearly fascinated by and want to be connected to Europe and America The Croatian naive artists have played a critical role in how Croatia as a nation has been and continues to be imagined for those living in and outside the country These paintings can also be admired independently of cultural issues Croatian naive art has repeatedly been recognized by curators and scholars as some of the most imaginative and technically accomplished naive or folk art in the world Much of it counters the designation naive as it is quite sophisticated That label simply means that these paintings have been created by largely self taught artists and that they often take as their point of inspiration life in the fields and villages Michael Milkovich Director pages 8 10 Masters of Naive Painting from Yugoslavia Arthur Tooth & Sons (London), 1968 Transforming Heritage in the Former Yugoslavia Gruiă Bădescu, Britt Baillie, Francesco Mazzucchelli, 2021-08-11 Heritage became a target during the Yugoslav Wars as part of ethnic cleansing and urbicide Out of the ashes of war pasts were remodelled places took on new layers of meaning and a wave of new memorialization took hold Three decades since the fall of Vukovar and the end of the siege of Sarajevo and more than a decade since Kosovo's Declaration of Independence conflict has shifted from armed confrontations to battles about the past The former Yugoslavia has been described on the one hand as a bastion of plurality and multiculturalism and on the other as a territory of antagonism and radical nationalisms echoing imaginaries and narratives relevant to Europe as a whole With Croatia having entered the EU in 2013 and the continuous political contestation in the region wounds in the memory fabric of the former Yugoslavia have once more come to the world s attention Thus there is the question what will happen when the former republics are reunited once more under the EU umbrella itself beset by increasing populisms nationalisms and the looming prospects of territorial fragmentation This collection scrutinizes the role of heritage in conflict time inquires what role the past might have in creating new identities at the local regional national and supra national levels and investigates the dynamics of heritage as a process
