Life-writing in Carmen Martín Gaité's Cuadernos de Todo and Her Novels of the 1990s Maria-José Blanco, Maria-José Blanco López de Lerma,2013 Blanco examines the relationship between life writing in Mart n Gaité s notebooks and her fictional work Carmen Martín Gaité 1925-2000 was one of the most important Spanish writers of the second half of the twentieth century. From the 1940s until her death in 2000 she published short stories, novels, poetry, drama, children's literature and cultural and historical studies. This book studies life writing in Martín Gaité's notebooks: Cuadernos de todo (2002) and her novels of the 1990s: Nubosidad variable (1992), La Reina de las nieves (1994), Lo raro es vivir (1996) and Irse de casa (1998). It looks at the use of first person narration in Martín Gaité's work, drawing a parallel between the notebooks and her fictional work. It further analyses the way the author's notebooks relate to the development of her later novels, as well as the use of writing as therapy. This work offers a way of looking at Carmen Martín Gaité's work from a personal and intimate perspective. Maria José Blanco López de Lerma is Spanish Lecturer and Language Tutor at the Department of Spanish/Portuguese/Latin American Studies, King's College London.

Spanish New York Narratives 1898-1936 David Miranda-Barreiro, 2017-07-05. In the early decades of the twentieth century New York caught the attention of Spanish writers. Many of them visited the city and returned to tell their experience in the form of a literary text. That is the case of Pruebas de Nueva York (1927) by José Moreno Villa (1887-1955), El crisol de las razas (1929) by Teresa de Escoriaza (1891-1968), Anticipolis (1931) by Luis de Oteyza (1883-1961) and La ciudad automática (1932) by Julio Camba (1882-1962). In tune with similar representations in other European works, the image of New York given in these texts reflects the tensions and anxieties generated by the modernisation embodied by the United States. These authors project onto New York their concerns and expectations about issues of class, gender and ethnicity that were debated at the time in the context of the crisis of Spanish national identity triggered by the end of the empire in 1898.

Carmen Martín Gaité Ester Bautista Botello, 2019-01-09. This book reconstructs the poetics of Carmen Martín Gaité by viewing the concept of journey as a fundamental principle upon which she bases and elaborates her narrative writing of the 1990s. Five novels published in this period receive critical attention, all of which coincide with the last trips taken by the writer to New York: Caperucita en Manhattan (1990), Nubosidad variable (1992), La reina de las nieves (1994), Lo raro es vivir (1996) and Irse de casa (1998). To the extent that the journey is the essence of the narrative under consideration, the concept is analysed as an aesthetic practice and an attempt to identify a series of actions which allow us to link the writer's novels with two areas that have previously received only scant critical scrutiny: geography and the visual dimension. This book presents a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of space in Martín Gaité's narrative, as well as in her collages, drawings and paintings.
