Nuit Tres Longue:

, Elementary French Grammar J. Wright, 1887 Witness Between Languages Peter Davies, Peter J. Davies, 2018 A growing body of scholarship is making visible the contribution of translators to the creation, preservation and transmission of knowledge about the Holocaust. The discussion has tended to be theoretical or to concentrate on exposing the distorted translations of texts by important witnesses such as Anne Frank or Elie Wiesel. There is therefore a need for a positive, concrete and contextually aware approach to the translation of Holocaust testimonies that acknowledges the achievements of translators while being sensitive to the consequences of particular translation strategies. Peter Davies's study proceeds from the assumption that translators are active co-creators whose work does not simply mediate a pre-existing text but creates a representation of that text for a new readership in a specific context. Translators of Holocaust testimonies then provide a form of textual commentary that works through ideas about witnessing historical truth and the meaning of the Holocaust. In this way they are important co-creators of knowledge about the Holocaust and its legacy. The study focuses on translations between English and German and from other languages principally French, Russian and Polish into English and German. It works through a number of case studies showing how making translation and its effects visible contributes to a clearer understanding of how knowledge about the Holocaust has been and continues to be created and mediated. Peter Davies is Professor of German at the University of Edinburgh. Elementary French Grammar Dr. J. Wright, 1911 Under Spells and Other Narratives Theodore Lyons, 2013-10-29 In Under Spells a Buddhist author recounts his simultaneous influences after living out some of the experiences of various authors and their characters. On the verge of homelessness in Sans Abri Without Shelter he decides not to stay in a shelter but rather outdoors like Siddhartha Gautama Buddha and his followers in the 5th century BC and painfully conquers the elements. Having studied astronomy and astrology he finally charts his horoscope in Little Green Men and learns how and why his life turned out the way it did. In Chez Moi he journeys again to Maine and eastern Canada while he has the chance. De la Terre des Dragons, Acte I, L'Antre d'Alpriade V Grante, Home Words Mavis Reimer, 2009-08-01 The essays in Home Words explore the complexity of the idea of home through various theoretical lenses and groupings of texts. One focus of this collection is the relation between the discourses of nation which often represent the nation as home and the discourses of home in children's literature which variously picture home as a dwelling, family, town or region, psychological comfort and a place to start from and return to. These essays consider the myriad ways in which discourses of home underwrite both children's and national literatures. Home Words reconfigures the field of Canadian children's literature as it is usually represented by setting the study of English and French language texts side by side and by paying sustained attention to the diversity of work by Canadian writers for children including both Aboriginal peoples and racialized Canadians. It builds on the literary histories, bibliographical essays and biographical criticism that have dominated the scholarship to date and sets out to determine and establish new directions for the study of
