Shari Lewis and Lamb Chop Nat Segaloff, Mallory Lewis, 2022-10-28. For almost half a century celebrated ventriloquist and entertainer Shari Lewis 1933-1998 delighted generations of children and adults with the help of her trusted sock puppet sidekick Lamb Chop. For decades the beloved pair were synonymous with children's television, educating and entrancing their young audience with their symbiotic personalities and their proclivity for song, dance, and the joy of silliness. But as iconic as their television personas are, relatively little inside knowledge has been revealed about Lewis herself and the life-changing moments that led her to the entertainment industry and perhaps most importantly to Lamb Chop. Renowned as a performer, Lewis was equally accomplished in business. Operating in an era when women were largely left out of the conversation, she was one of the few women to run her own television production company. Whether it was singing, dancing, conducting, writing, drawing, or ventriloquism, a skill in which she was virtually unmatched, Lewis spent the entirety of her sixty-five years in pursuit of performative perfection. Constantly innovating and adapting to the needs of her audience and the market, Lewis extended the longevity of her career decade after decade. Her contributions, particularly the creation of Lamb Chop and her puppet pals, forever changed the history of children's television. Now long after Lewis and Lamb Chop graced television with their final performance, Lewis's daughter Mallory and author Nat Segaloff have set the record straight about the iconic pair in Shari Lewis and Lamb Chop: The Team That Changed Children's Television. In this seminal biography, the authors pull the veritable wool from the eyes of audiences who adore the legendary entertainer to examine the joys, sorrows, triumphs, and sheer hard work that gave Lewis and Lamb Chop their enduring star power.
