Memories of a Fisherman's Wife Alma Jean Irving, 2011-08-30 The story starts on the day Jean was born into a family of strife with an alcoholic father and parents that fought every weekend She was raised with a sister and three brothers The three oldest of the children were very close in age and did everything together as young children The other two children came along later So they were not as close as the older three were She went on to marry her first love at age fifteen He was twenty He drank a lot of beer so consequently there were a lot of problems Over the years he was unfaithful to her multiple of times He was not yet ready to settle down Yet they had three children to raise Roland was a commercial fisherman and times were hard He would go out and get whatever seafood was in season to sell and bring some home to cook He spent lots of time away from home sometimes two or three days Sometimes he would be working but most of the time he was just goofing off or spending time with other people and sometimes it would be with other women Sometimes Jean would go out and find him and get him to come home Jean spent a lot of time cleaning the house and moving the furniture around from boredom Other times she would work outside the home She tried to keep a stable home for the kids as best she could under the circumstances Sometimes Roland would take the children out on the boat fishing and clamming One time there was an accident that occurred while he had the two boys out in the ocean on a small boat Roland escaped near death several times from events that happened while working in his fishing profession as a commercial fisherman What happened to him And what happened to the girl in this story This is a story that never gets boring It keeps your interest to the end

The Song of the Lark Willa Sibert Cather, 2020-09-28 Thea Kronberg an aspiring singer struggles to escape the confines of her small Colorado town to the world of possibility on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House

I Am Vidocq: A Mystery of Old Paris Vincent McConnor, 2017-05-31 A number of baffling cases confront the renowned Vidocq chief of the famed Surete Nationale and his loyal staff of reformed criminals that hot summer of 1823 There is the murder of the famous Parisian jeweler and the murder of Maya the Spanish whore shot with the same gun and systematic looting of treasures from the great chateaux by The Black Devil and more With a heady rich nineteenth century atmosphere this mystery is a keeper

The Song of the Lark Willa Cather, 2021-07-31T16:34:48Z The Song of the Lark Willa Cather s third novel was written in 1915 It is said to have been inspired by the real life soprano Olive Fremstad a celebrated Swedish American singer who like the protagonist was active in New York and Europe during the time period depicted in the novel The work explores how an artist s early life influences their work In the novel Thea Kronborg discovers her talent as a singer and goes on to achieve great fame and success once she leaves her tiny village of Moonstone Cather eschewed depicting rural life as being idyllic instead focusing on the conservative restricted patriarchal structures that its inhabitants live by Her work is thus considered to be one of the earliest so called Revolt Novels She depicts a time at the end of the 19th century when the American West was expanding rapidly and Americans were gaining sophistication in their understanding of culture and artists particularly compared to Europe The title of the novel comes from the name of a 1884 painting by Jules Breton which is described and considered in the book itself This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks
