Hafsteinsdóttir,2023-07-15 The book explores how mentoring theoretical background of mentoring and how mentoring is used by nurses in all arenas where they work in health care education research policy politics and academia in supporting nurses with their professional and career development Over 300 mentors and mentees from a wide range of countries across all continents share their stories of mentoring reflecting on their development in leadership clinical practice education research and politics The book describes various types of mentoring including more traditional types of mentoring as well as virtual online and peer mentoring During the mentorship trajectories the nurses address an inclusive collection of issues that they are faced with and share supporting strategies The book highlights the importance of mentoring for nurses to support their personal and professional leadership development. Also, it emphasizes the importance of mentoring for when nurses engaged in variety of projects that could entail or encompass evidence based clinical practice development within education research in the clinical arena policy formation political affairs or cultural inclusion that present significant impact in patient care and healthcare outcomes within and across countries. With The Future of Nursing 2020-2030 Charting a Path to Achieve Health Equity report from the National Academies of Sciences published in 2021, the role of nursing will become ever more dynamic and therefore the profession of nursing must be visible in improving and securing the future for patients, families and communities across the globe. Mentoring practices to build the profession's leaders are forever essential, acute and imperative. This book shows how mentoring can support nurses in further developing nursing as a profession and scientific discipline across countries to support clinical application of evidence based practice and nursing education and research dissemination. Accordingly, this book shares essential, diverse and pioneering expertise through wide range of narrative stories that will benefit nurses at all years of experience from early career nurses, emerging leaders, nurse educators, leaders, policy makers and nurse scientists around the globe. The nursing profession must magnify its position in health care and nurses need to proliferate their contributions throughout the globe. They can accomplish that through mentoring and growing and nurturing other nurses to advance and thrive in today's world.

Leadership and Nursing Care Management Diane Huber, 2013-09-24. Research Notes in each chapter summarize relevant nursing leadership and management studies and show how research findings can be applied in practice. Leadership and Management Behavior boxes in each chapter highlight the performance and conduct expected of nurse leaders, managers and executives. Leading and Managing Defined boxes in each chapter list key terminology related to leadership and management and their definitions. Case Studies at the end of each chapter present real world leadership and management situations and illustrate how key chapter concepts can be applied to actual practice. Critical Thinking Questions at the end of each chapter present clinical situations followed by critical thinking questions that allow you to reflect on chapter content, critically analyze the information and apply it to the situation. A new Patient Acuity chapter uses evidence based tools to discuss how patient acuity measurement can be done in ways that are specific to nursing. A reader friendly format breaks key content into easy to scan bulleted lists. Chapters are divided according to the AONE competencies for nurse leaders, managers and executives. Practical Tips boxes highlight useful strategies for applying leadership and management skills to practice.
