Dept. of Religious Education, 1917 2 Corinthians (Word and Spirit Commentary on the New Testament) Ben Witherington, III, 2024-10-29 The Spirit who inspired the authors of the New Testament is at work today around the globe as evidenced by the explosive growth of pentecostal charismatic and renewalist movements There is a clear need for a balanced affordable and accessible commentary series aimed at Christians who identify as Spirit filled The Word and Spirit Commentary on the New Testament series emphasizes how we listen alongside ancient audiences for the Spirit's voice in our time and contexts Written by pastorally sensitive biblical scholars from the Spirit filled tradition these commentaries explore how God works in the biblical texts and how Christians can expect God to work today even if in new or culturally surprising ways Series editors are Holly Beers Westmont College and Craig S Keener Asbury Theological Seminary In this addition to the series senior scholar Ben Witherington III engages 2 Corinthians in its ancient setting and explores its message for Spirit filled Christians today Images illustrations and sidebars on pentecostal charismatic revival history or insights are included Teaching for Commitment Elmer John Thiessen,1993 Elmer Thiessen provides a comprehensive critical survey of the debate concerning indoctrination especially in the context of confessional religious education His central aim is to establish that indoctrination as a result of religious instruction is neither inevitable nor as probable as is often assumed by advocates of liberal education Thiessen recognizes that indoctrination can occur in Christian homes and schools He believes however that before the charge of indoctrination can be correctly evaluated we need to develop a more coherent concept of the term He provides a critical examination of the four criteria traditionally associated with indoctrination content method intention and consequences and of the institutional context of indoctrination Nurture Faith W.
