Compose, Sarah, Juliana Doxey, and David Hammond. "Nutrition Labels on Pre Packaged Foods." Public Health and Nutrition (2010): 1-11. Google Scholar. Web. 14 July 2016.

Summary: In this article, the authors approach the downfalls of pre packaged nutrition labels. The writing explains the problems that food production companies produce when they include misleading informations on the labels of the foods that they do produce. It reflects on the need for accuracy in nutrition labels as well as the importance of pushing knowledge and information onto ignorant consumers.

Reflection: The food production companies rely on the ignorance of customers in order to up their own sales. This article implies that these companies depend on misleading nutritional facts to make the consumer think that it is the healthiest choice.

Unfortunately this is not the case. This article emphasizes the importance of knowing what is in the food that you are eating and buying and knowing what you should be putting in your body.

Reflection: This was one of my favorite articles/sources that I found in researching this topic. This writing pointed out the fact that it is legal for these food production companies to intentionally mislead consumers to think that it is a good choice.
