Upsetting Composition Commonplaces Ian Barnard, 2014-07-15 In Upsetting Composition Commonplaces Ian Barnard argues that composition still retains the bulk of instructional practices that were used in the decades before poststructuralist theory discredited them While acknowledging that some of the foundational insights of poststructuralist theory can be difficult to translate to the classroom Barnard upends several especially intransigent tenets that continue to influence the teaching of writing and how students are encouraged to understand writing Using six major principles of writing classrooms and textbooks clarity intent voice ethnography audience and objectivity Barnard looks at the implications of poststructuralist theory for pedagogy While suggesting some evocative poststructuralist pedagogical practices the author focuses on diagnosing the fault lines of composition's refusal of poststructuralism rather than on providing solutions in the form of teaching templates Upsetting Composition Commonplaces addresses the need to more effectively engage in poststructuralist concepts in composition in an accessible and engaging voice that will advance the conversation about relations between the theory and teaching of writing

Academic Writing for Military Personnel, revised edition Adam Chapnick, Craig Stone, 2023-05-16 Academic Writing for Military Personnel is a manual for writing clear and effective academic prose Authored by an experienced writing instructor and a retired military officer both of whom teach in a professional military education institution it is designed for members of the armed forces who are entering or perhaps re entering the academic community and having spent much of their careers either writing in the professional military context or not writing at all The book not only teaches officers how to write convincingly but also explains why a sound grasp of academic writing can enhance their effectiveness in their regular duties particularly as they reach the more senior levels of service Chapters focus on the value of written communication skills the difference between professional staff and academic writing the research process the writing process academic professionalism and common writing problems and challenges A particularly innovative final chapter discusses how officers can use the knowledge that they have acquired through their professional experiences in the academic context Specific examples chosen with a military audience in mind are integrated throughout the text to provide the reader with relevant and practical guidance The revised edition incorporates new examples from a more diverse set of authors takes into account recent changes in communication technologies and reflects new advancements in the scholarship of teaching and learning As the only comprehensive guide to effective academic writing designed specifically for military personnel this book will be a crucial addition to the libraries of junior and senior officers in militaries worldwide Available formats trade paperback accessible PDF and accessible ePub

Insights into Ethical Theory and Practice Francis Fallon, 2022-02-06 Ethical issues hold great importance for all of us but expert accounts of them are difficult to access for those outside academics This volume bridges that gap by framing a variety of essays within the field in a way that renders them accessible to experts and non experts alike Many collections on ethics re publish classic essays and offer contextualization and analysis while other volumes of emerging innovative work presuppose a background in the field This book uniquely borrows from both approaches offering emerging innovative work carefully curating its order for sense and presenting the work so that non experts may understand it The field of ethics is an eclectic one Where other collections on ethics may intimidate the reader by representing the field as an organized monolith or as impenetrable to outsiders this volume is designed to give readers confidence and enthusiasm in approaching a diverse and lively subject

The One-on-One Reading and Writing Conference Jennifer Berne, Sophie C. Degener, 2015 Personal interactions are the single most effective way for teachers to understand and evaluate their student as learners Responding specifically to new Common Core State Standards in reading and writing this book introduces pre and inservice teachers to a method of one on one interaction the authors refer to as the stretch conference This book provides detailed practical advice on the logistics of implementing these conferences during the busy school day including tips on how and when to schedule conferences and how to successfully manage the classroom during conference time The authors argue that rather than using valuable conference time for word level concerns and editing teachers should focus on more ambitious goals that will deepen or stretch students skills in comprehension and writing This resource suggests where conferences fit in with other important pieces of literacy instruction introduces a variety of high quality cues to use during conferences and shows how conferences can function as formative assessment for reading and writing skills

Book Features Written by two veteran teacher educators who conduct frequent workshops and professional development with teachers Helps teachers adjust their instruction for the demands of Common Core Standards specifically Reading Anchor Standards 1 and 10 and Writing Standards 1 5 and 10 Shows teachers how to schedule individual conferences within typical classroom time constraints Includes many detailed examples of effective conferences taken from real classrooms A roadmap for engaging students in conversations that will change their understanding Frankly it s an amazing resource and one that has changed my thinking about classroom instructional time

From the Foreword by Douglas Fisher San Diego State University A critical opportunity to reflect on our practice examining whether the content of our conferences is aligned with the rigorous expectations of the Common Core Sunday Cummins literacy consultant and author
