Laws     Sustainable Development: Asia-Pacific Perspectives Pak Sum Low, 2022-01-13 The Asia Pacific region has been experiencing rapid development in the past 30 years and issues relating to sustainable development will become increasingly important in the coming decades This comprehensive overview presents sustainable development from the perspectives of Asia and the Pacific with contributions from more than 70 leading international experts The first part focuses on the theories and practices of sustainable development including national and regional perspectives as well as international policies and law concerning climate change The second part highlights the challenges and opportunities of sustainable development and poverty reduction amid the changing ecological social cultural economic and political environment in this region These include issues such as the importance of science for sustainable development and related areas including sustainable energy stratospheric ozone depletion climate change land use change biodiversity and disaster risk reduction The volume is an invaluable reference for all researchers and policy makers with an interest in sustainable development     Schooling for

Sustainable Development Across the Pacific John Chi-Kin Lee, Rob Efird, 2014-05-23 Environmental education EE and education for sustainable development ESD are asserting their growing role in curricula around the world yet how deeply embedded are they in the learning systems of the Pacific nations Building on an earlier analysis in China and Taiwan this volume expands its purview to examine the quality and extent of environmental and sustainable development education in a number of countries in the Asia Pacific region including China itself Taiwan South Korea Japan and Indonesia As well as offering detailed national analyses provided by Asian Pacific academics and professionals this work includes examples in the US and Canada and an introduction that assesses the contrasting challenges and positive commonalities among diverse education systems The chapters reflect leading edge practice innovation and depth of experience and at the same time as detailing locally relevant and culturally appropriate strategies they also provide clear models and strategies for expanding the application and influence of education for sustainable development elsewhere In doing so they mirror the global nature of environmental issues as well as the local nature of the solutions     Blue Economy and Ocean Sustainable Development in a Globalised World: Social, Political, Economic and Environmental Issues Ibukun J. Adewumi, Andrei Polejack, Joanna Vince, Maree E. Fudge, 2023-12-05 In the last decade the concept of a Blue Economy has ignited a deep theoretical debate Ranging from the integration of the triple bottom line of sustainability to the optimization of profit from ocean exploitation the meaning of the term blue economy differs considerably between epistemic communities and even more so among national and regional policies There is a general sense of the opportunity to realise enhanced social and economic benefits from the sustainable utilisation of their ocean and coastal resources under the umbrella framework of blue economy Blue economy is gaining traction already as a significant component of national policies even in spite of a clear conceptualization of the term Many countries are now preparing national policies towards realising their blue economy ambitions utilizing the concept as they see fit Likewise multilateral and regional organisations are developing guidelines and providing investment in new research technologies and financing tools that promote blue economy Critical challenges abound in particular in less privileged countries These include the gap in research capabilities governments prioritizing social wellbeing and economic profit in contrast to environmental protection the identification of new and emerging areas of ocean economic activity that are both socially and ecologically sustainable and holds viable business models that can attract private investment

Strengthening the Environmental Dimensions of the Sustainable Development Goals in Asia and the Pacific Asian Development Bank,2019-01-01 This report presents the results of a stocktake of national responses to Sustainable Development Goals 12 14 and 15 and selected environment related targets that have a direct relationship with responsible consumption and production and sustainable marine and terrestrial ecosystems management by 15 developing countries in Asia and the Pacific The report was completed under the first phase of a technical assistance project by the Asian Development Bank with the aim of understanding and helping its developing member countries address the issues and challenges behind effective integration of these goals and targets into national policies plans and programs

International Environmental Law in the Asia Pacific Ben Boer,Donald R. Rothwell,Ross Ramsay,Donald Rothwell,1998-02-18 The purpose of this book is to assess the development of international environmental law in the Asia Pacific Consideration is given to the impact upon the region of global regional and subregional environmental law An assessment is also undertaken of how certain states and groups of states have responded domestically and within their own subregions to these developments For the purposes of this book the Asia Pacific is defined as essentially the states which comprise East and Southeast Asia Australia New Zealand and the island states of the Southwest Pacific Occasional consideration is also given to the states of South Asia

Culture and Sustainable Development in the Pacific Antony Hooper,2005-04-01 Throughout the South Pacific notions of culture and development are very much alive in political debate the media sermons and endless discussions amongst villagers and the urban lites even in policy reports Often the terms are counterposed and development along with economic rationality good governance and progress is set against culture or custom tradition and identity The decay of custom and impoverishment of culture are often seen as wrought by development while failures of development are haunted by the notion that they are due somehow to the darker irrational influences of culture The problem is to resolve the contradictions between them so as to achieve the greater good access to material goods welfare and amenities modern life without the sacrifice of the traditional values and institutions that provide material security and sustain diverse social identities Resolution is sought in this book by a number of leading writers from the South Pacific including Langi Kavaliku Epeli Hau ofa Marshall Sahlins Malama Meleisea Joeli Veitayaki and Tarcisius Tara Kabutaulaka The volume is brought together for UNESCO by Antony Hooper Professor Emeritus at the University of Auckland UNESCO experts include Richard Engelhardt Langi Kavaliku Russell Marshall Malama Meleisea Edna Tait and Mali Voi

Skills Development for Inclusive and Sustainable Growth in Developing Asia-Pacific Rupert Maclean, Shanti Jagannathan, Jouko Sarvi, 2012-12-09 Focusing on the Asia Pacific region which in recent years has been the engine of global economic growth this volume surveys trends and prospects in technical and vocational education and training TVET with particular reference to achieving inclusive growth and the greening of economies Underlying the increasing pressure for new models of TVET provision is the rapid pace of technological change demand for a work force which is highly responsive to evolving needs and a transforming market place that calls for higher order skills and lifelong learning The book proposes a re engineered modernized TVET system that fosters an innovative approach which enhances the employability of workers as well as the sustainability of their livelihoods The book includes contributions from leading policy makers researchers and practitioners including those in the private sector in analyzing and forecasting the most urgent priorities in skills development The book argues for creative approaches to TVET design and delivery particularly with a view to improve job prospects and meeting the goals of inclusion sustainable development and social cohesion Addressing issues such as the chronic mismatches between skills acquired and actual skills required in the work place the volume proposes diversified approaches towards workforce development and partnerships with the private sector to improve the quality and relevance of skills development The new imperatives created by greening economies and responses required in skills development and training are addressed Developing TVET is a high priority for governments in the Asia Pacific region as they seek to achieve long term sustainable growth since the continued success of their economic destinies depend on it The volume also includes an emerging framework for skills development for inclusive and sustainable growth in the Asia and Pacific region
