Pacific History Papers From The 8th Pacific History Abociation Conference Eighth:

Telling Pacific Lives Vicki Luker, Brij V. Lal, 2008-06-01 This volume of essays is an exploration of the way in which scholars from different disciplines standpoints and theoretical orientations attempt to write life stories in the Pacific It is the product of a conference organised by the Division of Pacific and Asian History at The Australian National University in December 2005 The aim of the conference was to explore ways in which Pacific lives are read and constructed through a variety of media films fiction faction history under four overarching themes The first Framing Lives sought to explore various ways of constructing a life from a classic western perspective of birth formation experiences and death of an individual to other ways for example life as secondary to a longer genealogical entity life as a symbol of collective experience individual lives captured and fragmented in a mosaic of others lives made meaningful by their implication in a particular historical or cultural web the underlying values and world views that inform one or another approach to framing a life The second theme the Stuff of Life looked at materials methods and collaborative arrangements with which the biographer autobiographer and recorder work their objectives constraints inspirations challenges and tricks The third section Story Lines focused on formats and genres such as edited diaries collections of writings voice recordings genres of biography autobiography truth and fiction verse dance novels and the varieties and different advantages of narrative shapes that crystallise the telling of a life The final section Telling Lives Changing Lives focused on biography autobiography and the consciousness of identity history purpose lives as witness and windows telling lives as change for those involved in the tale the telling the listening The overall aim was to bring out both the generic or universal challenges of telling lives as well as to highlight the particular tendencies and trends in the Pacific Yet these four themes which seemed analytically promising at the outset proved in practice difficult to disentangle from the presentations at the workshop Provided by publisher Texts and Contexts Doug Munro, Brij V. Lal, 2005-11-30 Texts and Contexts is concerned with the development of Pacific Islands history as a specialization in its own right Specifically this volume examines the foundational texts that pioneered and consolidated the new subdiscipline and served as the building blocks and stepping stone for further developments in the field Thirty five texts all of which represent defining points in the development of Pacific Islands historiography are examined Much more than retrospective appraisals of the foundational texts the individual chapters consider a text or complimentary texts within the context of the time of writing and gauge what ongoing influence they exerted In some cases they suggest how a particular text has been superseded by subsequent work that breaks new conceptual ground in the ongoing process of revisionism Contributors Chris Ballard on Gavin Souter Ivan Brady on Greg Denning I C Campbell on Norma McArthur Bronwen Douglas and Doug Munro on H E Maude and Dorothy Shineberg Michael Goldsmith on Marshall Sahlins David Hanlon on Francis X Hezel K R Howe on Andrew Sharp and David Lewis Brij V Lal on K L Gillion and Peter Corris Hugh Laracy on Niel Gunson and Ta unga Lamont Lindstrom on Peter Worsley and Peter Lawrence Doug Munro on Douglas L Oliver R P Gilson J W Davidson and K R Howe

Peoples of the Pacific Paul D'Arcy, 2017-05-15 Presenting the history of the inhabitants of the Pacific Islands from first colonization until the spread of European colonial rule in the later 19th century this volume focuses specifically on Pacific Islander European interactions from the perspective of Pacific Islanders themselves A number of recorded traditions are reproduced as well as articles by Pacific Island scholars working within the academy The nature of Pacific History as a sub discipline is presented through a sample of key articles from the 1890s until the present that represent the historical evolution of the field and its multidisciplinary nature The volume reflects on how the indigenous inhabitants of the Pacific Islands have a history as dynamic and complex as that of literate societies and one that is more retrievable through multidisciplinary approaches than often realized

Remembrance of Pacific Pasts Robert Borofsky, 2020-02-29 How does one describe the Pacific's pasts The easy confidence historians once had in writing about the region has disappeared in the turmoil surrounding today's politics of representation Earlier narratives that focused on what happened when are now accused of encouraging myths of progress Remembrance of Pacific Pasts takes a different course It acknowledges history's multiplicity and selectivity its inability to represent the past in its entirety as it really was and instead offers points of reference for thinking with and about the region's pasts It encourages readers to participate in the historical process by constructing alternative histories that draw on the volume's chapters The book's thirty four contributions written by a range of authors spanning a variety of styles and disciplines are organized into four sections The first presents frames of reference for analyzing the problems poetics and politics involved in addressing the region's pasts today The second considers early Islander Western contact focusing on how each side sought to physically and symbolically control the other The third deals with the colonial dynamics of the region the tensions of empire that permeated imperial rule in the Pacific The fourth explores the region's postcolonial politics through a discussion of the varied ways independence and dependence overlap today Remembrance of Pacific Pasts includes many of the region's most distinguished authors such as Albert Wendt Greg Denning Epeli Hau'ofa Marshall Sahlins Patricia Grace and Nicholas Thomas In addition it features chapters by well known writers from outside Pacific Studies Edward Said James Clifford Richard White and Gyan Prakash which help place the region's dynamics in comparative perspective By moving Pacific history beyond traditional empirical narratives to new ways for conversing about history by drawing on current debates surrounding the politics of representation to offer different ways for thinking about the region's pasts this work has relevance for students and scholars of history anthropology and cultural studies both within and beyond the region

Memorialising Premodern Monarchs Gabrielle Storey, 2021-11-22 This book examines the legacies and depictions of monarchs in an international context focusing on both self representation and commemoration by others Spanning ancient India through to eighteenth century Russia this volume offers several case studies to demonstrate trends and patterns in how different societies chose to commemorate and remember their rulers in a variety of mediums Contributions highlight several lesser known rulers alongside more famous ones such as Henry VIII of England to develop a deeper understanding of how memory and monarchy functioned when drawn together Memorialising Premodern Monarchs brings to the fore the importance of memory and memorialisation when considering the legacies and records of past rulers and their societies and allows a deeper reflection on how these rulers live on through the historical record and popular culture

Coast to Coast Prue Ahrens,Chris Dixon,2020-05-22 From the beginnings of human settlement through to the Cook voyages and beyond histories of the Pacific are stories of contact and connection This vast region can be charted through histories of encounter between the diverse peoples of the Pacific the Pacific Rim and the wider world Coast to Coast explores the networks of modernity that connected the various peoples of the Pacific Australia and North America as new means of transportation distribution and communication developed from the mid nineteenth century

Writing British Columbia History, 1784-1958 Chad Reimer,2010-07-01 Captain James Cook first made contact with the area now known as British Columbia in 1778 The colonists who followed soon realized they needed a written history both to justify their dispossession of Aboriginal peoples and to formulate an identity for a new settler society Writing British Columbia History shows how Euro Canadian historians took up this task and struggled with the newness of colonial society and overlapping alliances to the British Empire the United States and Canada In explorers accounts promotional literature pioneer histories and academic studies they eased these tensions by defining British Columbia as part of a global British Empire incorporating it into an expanding Anglo Saxon civilization and writing it into the empire of history itself This sweeping study of the role of history writing in colonialism and nation building will appeal to anyone interested in British Columbia history the history of the Pacific Northwest or history writing in Canada

The Borderlands of the American and Canadian Wests Sterling Evans,2006-01-01 The Borderlands of the American and Canadian Wests is the first collection of interdisciplinary essays bringing together scholars from both sides of the forty ninth parallel to examine life in a transboundary region The result is a text that reveals the diversity difficulties and fortunes of this increasingly powerful but little understood part of the North American West Contributions by historians geographers anthropologists and scholars of criminal justice and environmental studies provide a comprehensive picture of the history of the borderlands region of the western United States and Canada The Borderlands of the American and Canadian Wests is divided into six parts Defining the Region Colonizing the Frontier Farming and Other Labor Interactions the Borderlands as a Refuge in the Nineteenth Century the Borderlands as a Refuge in the Twentieth Century and Natural Resources and Conservation along the Border

Topics include the borderlands environment its aboriginal and gender history frontier interactions and comparisons agricultural and labor relations tourism the region as a refuge for Mormons far right groups and Vietnam War resisters and conservation and natural resources These areas show how the history and geography of the borderlands region has been transboundary multidimensional and unique within North America Check List of Historical Records Survey Publications United States. Work Projects Administration,1943 Check List of Historical Records Survey Publications Sargent Burrage Child,1943 Pacific Futures Warwick Anderson,Miranda Johnson,Barbara Brookes,2018-11-30 How when and why has the Pacific been a locus for imagining different futures by those living there as well as passing through What does that tell us about the distinctiveness or otherwise of this sea of islands Foregrounding the work of leading and emerging scholars of Oceania Pacific Futures brings together a diverse set of approaches to and examples of how futures are being conceived in the region and have been imagined in the past Individual chapters engage the various and sometimes contested futures yearned for unrealized and even lost or forgotten that are particular to the Pacific as a region ocean island network destination and home Contributors recuperate the futures hoped for and dreamed up by a vast array of islanders and outlanders from Indigenous federalists to Lutheran improvers to Cantonese small business owners making these histories of the future visible In so doing the collection intervenes in debates about globalization in the Pacific and how the region is acted on by outside forces and postcolonial debates that emphasize the agency and resistance of Pacific peoples in the context of centuries of colonial endeavor With a view to the effects of the slow violence of climate change the volume also challenges scholars to think about the conditions of possibility for future thinking at all in the midst of a global crisis that promises cataclysmic effects for the region Pacific Futures highlights futures conceived in the context of a modernity coproduced by diverse Pacific peoples taking resistance to categorization as a starting point rather than a conclusion With its hospitable approach to thinking about history making and future thinking one that is open to a wide range of methodological epistemological and political interests and commitments the volume will encourage the writing of new histories of the Pacific and new ways of talking about history in this field the region and beyond The Archaeology of Difference Anne Clarke,Robin Torrence,2003-09-02 The Archaeology of Difference presents a new and radically different perspective on the archaeology of cross cultural contact and engagement The authors move away from acculturation or domination and resistance and concentrate on interaction and negotiation by using a wide variety of case studies which take a crucially indigenous rather than colonial standpoint The Pacific Ocean in History American Historical Association,American Asiatic Association,Asiatic Institute,1917 Government Publications and the Government World Mary C.
