Pacific Jewelry And Adornment Paperback:

Pacific Jewelry and Adornment Roger Neich, Fuli Pereira, 2004-08-31 This magnificent book showcases more than 250 of the finest examples of traditional jewelry from the Pacific. Myriad designs and materials including jade, whale teeth and bone, shark teeth, tapa, shells and plant fibers are woven together in a skillful combination of color and craftsmanship. Apart from their beauty, these personal items also convey information about power status and community. Their significance, the ceremonies in which they are worn and the messages they convey are explored in an illuminating introductory essay. Drawing on the extensive collections of the Auckland Museum, the jewelry shown here represents a vast geographical area: Micronesia, Papua New Guinea, Vanuatu, Fiji, Samoa, Tonga, Hawaii, Niue, the Marquesas, the Cook Islands and New Zealand. The amazing variety of styles and materials reflects the lifestyles, preoccupations and imperatives of a people surrounded by the largest ocean on the planet.

Adornment Michel Butor, Pierre-Alain Ferrazzini, 1994 Created both for everyday living and for special festivities, the extraordinary objects of adornment displayed here served at once as symbols of wealth, marks of rank and magic talismans. Fashioned from a range of precious and non-precious materials, these are pieces of high aesthetic merit. They come dramatically alive in the photographs in this book when shown adorning the body; their qualities designed to enhance both the dignity and the beauty of their wearers. Other close-up photographs demonstrate the incredible detail and workmanship of the objects.

The Worldwide History of Dress Patricia Rieff Anawalt, 2007 The Worldwide History of Dress covers every notable geographical region, historical period and style of costume worldwide from Upper Paleolithic plant fibre skirts, Ancient Egyptian linen shifts and Roman togas through Mongolian shamanic robes, Japanese kimonos and Indian saris to nineteenth-century Tyrolean dirndls, African ceremonial attire and Middle Eastern burqas. All aspects of dress and accessories are discussed: men's and women's clothing, footwear, headgear, jewelry, armour, decoration and face and body modification, using an astonishing variety of sources including mosaics, vintage photographs and colour plates of museum quality displays. Diagrams explain how garments are worn; line drawings illustrate traditional motifs and designs, and there are over fifty specially commissioned maps. While tracing influences from culture to culture, this tour de force includes descriptions of each region's population, geography and climate, allowing the reader to understand the development of an area's clothing customs. Complete with an extensive reference section.

Pacific Jewellery and Adornment Roger Neich, 2004 The Auckland Museum has extensive collections of the traditional personal ornaments of the peoples of the South Pacific, including Melanesia and Micronesia. They display a huge variety of styles and materials used, yet all reflect the lifestyles, preoccupations and imperatives of a people surrounded by thousands of square miles of ocean.
