Sequences Susan Roman,1985 Roller Coaster T. E. Goddard,2019-01-09 Roller Coaster is about a little boy who grows up without his real parents and believes that his nanny is actually his mum Sam makes decisions that affect everyone around him Whoever thought that going to the toilet at a mall could change your life forever Facing two adults with rifles should scare any four year old but not Sam and Sturt Starting school can be very scary but both Sam and Sturt are ready for a new chapter in their lives a new chapter they will never forget The Autocar ,1905 Image in the Making Katherine Thomson-Jones,2021-05-14 Human beings have always made images and to do so they have developed and refined an enormous range of artistic tools and materials With the development of digital technology the ways of making images whether they are still or moving 2D or 3D have evolved at an unprecedented rate At every stage of image making artists now face a choice between using analog and using digital tools Yet a digital image need not look digital and likewise a hand made image or traditional photograph need not look analog If we do not see the artist s choice between the analog and the digital what difference can this choice make for our appreciation of images in the digital age Image in the Making answers this question by accounting for the fundamental distinction between the analog and the digital by explicating the technological realization of this distinction in image making practice and by exploring the creative possibilities that are distinctive of the digital Katherine Thomson Jones makes the case for a new kind of appreciation in the digital age In appreciating the images involved in every digital art form from digital video installation to net art to digital cinema there is a basic truth that we cannot ignore The nature and technology of the digital expands both what an image can be as an image and what an image can be for us as human beings Justice of the Peace ,1903 Knight's Local Government Reports Great Britain.

Humor in Contemporary Junior Literature Julie Cross,2010-12-14 In this new book Julie Cross examines the intricacies of textual humor in contemporary junior literature using the tools of literary criticism and humor theory Cross investigates the dialectical paradoxes of humor and debunks the common belief in oppositional binaries of simple versus complex humor The varied combinations of so called high and low forms of humor within junior texts for young readers who are at such a crucial stage of their reading and social development provide a valuable commentary upon the culture and values of contemporary western society making the book of considerable interest to scholars of both children s literature and childhood studies Cross explores the ways in which the changing content forms and functions of the many varied combinations of humor in junior texts including the Lemony Snickett series reveal societal attitudes towards young children and childhood The new compounds of seemingly paradoxical high and low forms of humor in texts for developing readers from the 1960s onwards reflect and contribute to contemporary society s hesitant and uneven acceptance of the emergent paradigm of children s rights abilities participation and empowerment Cross identifies four types of potentially subversive transgressive humor which have emerged since the 1960s which coupled with the three main theories of humor relief superiority and incongruity theories enables a long overdue charting of developments in humor within junior texts Cross also argues that the gradual increase in the compounding of the simple and the complex provide opportunities for young readers to play with ambiguous complicated ideas helping them embrace the complexities and contradictions of contemporary life Digital Heritage

Lindsay MacDonald,2006-08-11 In the fields of documentation and conservation of cultural heritage assets there is a constant need for higher quality records and better analytical tools for extracting information about the condition of artefacts Digital photography and digital image processing provide these capabilities and recent technological advances in both fields promise new levels of performance for the capture and understanding of colour images This inter disciplinary book covers the imaging of decorated surfaces in historical buildings and the digitisation of documents paintings and objects in museums and galleries and shows how user requirements can be met by application of powerful digital imaging techniques Numerous case studies illustrate the methods

Creole Cinema: Memory Traces Louise Hardwick,2025-02-10 Creole Cinema Memory Traces is the first book written in English on Francophone Caribbean cinema It establishes a postcolonial Caribbean and fundamentally Creole theoretical framework for the interpretation of works which the author defines as Creole cinema through the lens of Patrick Chamoiseau s concept of the Trace m moire In so doing it examines the remarkable multisensory forms of memory expression performed by Creole cinema drawing on work on intercultural cinema and haptic visuality by Laura Marks and on Hamid Naficy s insights into accented cinema Initially undertaking a general survey which provides the most comprehensive account of Francophone Caribbean cinema to date the critical framework is then developed in a series of case studies which analyse Biguine 2004 directed by Guy Deslauriers with a screenplay by Chamoiseau Nord Plage 2004 directed by Jos Hayot again with Chamoiseau as author of the screenplay Rue Cases N gres 1983 Sugar Cane Alley directed by Euzhan Palcy and N g maron 2005 directed by Jean Claude Barne Each case study establishes how the Trace m moire manifests in a complex haptic multisensory set of dynamics which can be discerned both in individual works and across a wider range of films considered in order to access and retrieve here with a particular emphasis on processes of creative intuition subaltern and marginalised memories and histories The study works in a consistently interdisciplinary manner across areas including Francophone Studies Film Studies Postcolonial Studies World Cinema and Black Studies and represents a timely intervention on urgent debates around black representation in cinema Alexia: The Blue Daisy Book II
