

Prayer for a friend in emotional pain

Lord God, please be with my friend, who is going through emotional pain. Wrap them in Your loving arms and provide them with comfort, strength, and hope. Help them understand that they are loved and are not alone. Give them the courage and wisdom to seek the help they need to heal. Through Christ our Lord.

AMEN

Landbridge Y-Dang Troeung, 2024-10-11 In 1980 Y Dang Troeung and her family were among the last of the 60 000 refugees from Cambodia that Canada agreed to admit Their landing was widely documented in newspapers with photographs of the prime minister shaking Troeung's father's hand and patting baby Y Dang's head Troeung became a literal poster child for the benevolence of the Canadian refugee project She returns to this moment forty years later in her arresting memoir Landbridge where she explores the tension between that public narrative of happy arrival and the multiple often hidden truths of what happened to her family In precise beautiful prose Troeung moves back and forth in time to tell stories about her parents and two brothers who lived through the Cambodian genocide about the lives of her grandparents and extended family about her own childhood in the refugee camps and in rural Ontario and eventually about her young son's illness and her own diagnosis with a terminal disease Throughout this brilliant and astonishing book Troeung looks with bracing clarity at refugee existence and dares to imagine a better future with love Handbook of Sensitive Research in the Social Sciences Pranee Liamputtong, 2025-03-12 Conducting sensitive research in the social sciences requires meticulous attention to ethical considerations methodological rigour and emotional intelligence In this comprehensive Handbook Pranee Liamputtong brings together a diverse array of expert contributing authors to reflect on best practice and to discuss the growing attention to this type of research in the social sciences The Quest to Feel Good Paul R. North Africa swarmed the Mediterranean and the Atlantic seizing enormous amounts of booty and tens of thousands of captives hauling them back to the slave markets in their home ports and auctioning them off to the highest bidder The conflict between these Barbary corsairs and Europe was military but not just that religious but not just that social and economic but not just that either Above all it was a human conflict with all the confusion blurred lines and inherent messiness of such things and the narratives it generated were more complicated than simple swashbuckling pirate tales Corsairs Captives presents a collection of these narratives all based directly on primary source documents a number of which are translated into English for the first time They include biographies of four renegade corsair captains Europeans who converted to Islam and became corsairs descriptions of sea battles by those who were there accounts of ransomed captives the report of a French Trinitarian friar who led a ransoming expedition to Algiers even the transcript of a trial held by the Canary Islands chapter of the in famous Spanish Inquisition These narratives bring to life a world much rougher than our own but no less complicated in which people with the ordinary human fears and aspirations we are familiar with today struggled to endure It is not the world most people expect when they think of Barbary corsairs It is more interesting than that
