Living Through Loss Nancy R. Hooyman, Betty J. Kramer, 2008. Hooyman and Kramer's starting point is that loss comes in many forms and can include not only suffering the death of a person one loves but also giving birth to a child with disabilities, living with chronic illness, or being abused, assaulted, or otherwise traumatized. They approach loss from the perspective of the resilience model which acknowledges the capacity of people to integrate loss into their lives and write sensitively about the role of age, race, culture, sexual orientation, gender, and spirituality in a person's response to loss.
