Lives of the most eminent painters, sculptors, and architects: Translated from the Italian of Giorgio Vasari Giorgio Vasari, 1892 Lives of the Most Eminent Painters, Sculptors, and Architects Giorgio Vasari, 1851 Out of Time Robert Slifkin, 2013-08-31 Focusing on the thirty three paintings that Philip Guston exhibited at the Marlborough Gallery in 1970 this in depth account reconsiders the history of postwar American art and the conception of figuration in modern art history Through a myriad of cultural touchstones including evidence from literary and musical vogues of the period Robert Slifkin examines the role of history as both artistic medium and creative catalyst to Guston s practice as a painter Slifkin employs a wealth of visual examples archival materials and original scholarship to situate Guston s paintings within broader artistic debates of the time using the cultural movement of the sixties as its orienting foreground This historical framework provides an interface between the notions of time in art and time in the material world Lively and edifying Slifkin s comprehensive text productively complicates the prescribed traditions of postwar art history and in turn shifts our perception of Guston and his place in the domain of modern art Foucault on Painting Catherine M. Soussloff, 2017-11-23 Michel Foucault had been concerned about painting and the meaning of the image from his earliest publications yet this aspect of his thought is largely neglected within the disciplines of art history and aesthetic theory In Foucault on Painting Catherine M Soussloff argues that Foucault s sustained engagement with European art history critically addresses present concerns about the mediated nature of the image in the digital age Foucault s writing on painting covers four discrete periods in European art history seventeenth century southern Baroque mid nineteenth century French painting Surrealism and figurative painting in the 1960s and 70s as well as five individual artists Vel zquez Manet Magritte Paul Reyberolle and G rard Fromanger As Soussloff reveals in this book Foucault followed a French intellectual tradition dating back to the seventeenth century which understands painting as a separate area of knowledge Painting a practice long considered silent in its operations and effects afforded Foucault an ideal discipline to think about history and philosophy simultaneously Using a comparative approach grounded in art history and aesthetics Soussloff explores the meaning of painting for Foucault's philosophy and for contemporary art theory proposing a new relevance for a Foucauldian view of ethics and the pleasures and predicaments of contemporary existence
