Painter Of Our Time:

A Painter of Our Time John Berger, 1996-08-27 From John Berger the Booker Prize winning author of G A Painter of Our Time is at once a gripping intellectual and moral detective story and a book whose aesthetic insights make it a companion piece to Berger's great works of art criticism The year is 1956 Soviet tanks are rolling into Budapest In London an expatriate Hungarian painter named Janos Lavin has disappeared following a triumphant one man show at a fashionable gallery Where has he gone Why has he gone The only clues may lie in the diary written in Hungarian that Lavin has left behind in his studio With uncanny understanding John Berger has written one of the most convincing portraits of a painter in modern literature a revelation of art and exile A Painter of Our Time John Berger, 1959 The Sense of Sight John Berger, 1993-11-30

With this provocative and infinitely moving collection of essays a preeminent critic of our time responds to the profound questions posed by the visual world For when Booker Prize winning author John Berger writes about Cubism he writes not only of Braque, Leger, Picasso and Gris but of that incredible moment early in this century when the world converged around a marvelous sense of promise When he looks at the Modigliani he sees a man's infinite love revealed in the elongated lines of the painted figure Ranging from the Renaissance to the conflagration of Hiroshima from the Bosphorus to Manhattan from the woodcarvers of a French village to Goya, Durer and Van Gogh and from private experiences of love and of loss to the major political upheavals of our time The Sense of Sight encourages us to see with the same breadth, courage and moral engagement that its author does A Painter of Our Time John Berger (Kunstkritiker, Essayist, Lyriker), 1959 The

Art, History, and Postwar Fiction Kevin Brazil, 2018-10-24 Art History and Postwar Fiction explores the ways in which novelists responded to the visual arts from the aftermath of the Second World War to the present day If art had long served as a foil to enable novelists to reflect on their craft this book argues that in the postwar period novelists turned to the visual arts to develop new ways of conceptualizing the relationship between literature and history The sense that the novel was becalmed in the end of history was pervasive in the postwar decades In seeming to bring modernism to a climax whilst repeating its foundational gestures visual art also raised questions about the relationship between continuity and change in the development of art In chapters on Samuel Beckett William Gaddis John Berger and W G Sebald and shorter discussions of writers like Doris Lessing Kathy Acker and Teju Cole this book shows that writing about art was often a means of commenting on historical developments of the period the Cold War the New Left the legacy of the Holocaust Furthermore it argues that forms of postwar visual art from abstraction to the readymade offered novelists ways of thinking about the relationship between form and history that went beyond models of reflection or determination By doing so this book also argues that attention to interactions between literature and art can provide critics with new ways to think about the relationship between literature and history beyond reductive oppositions between formalism and historicism autonomy and incalculably wealthy universally idolized and wholly isolated In this stunning critical assessment John Berger one of this century's most insightful cultural historians trains his penetrating gaze upon this most prodigious and enigmatic painter and on the Spanish landscape and very particular culture that shaped his life and work Writing with a novelist's sensuous evocation of character and detail and drawing on an erudition that embraces history politics and art Berger follows Picasso from his childhood in Malaga to the Blue Period and Cubism from the creation of Guernica to the pained etchings of his final years He gives us the full measure of Picasso's triumphs and an unsparing reckoning of their cost in exile in loneliness and in a desolation that drove him in his last works into an old man's furious and desperate frenzy at the beauty of what he could no longer create
