Painters In Hanoi:

Painters in Hanoi Nora A. Taylor, 2004-01-01 By presenting artists as individuals actively involved in national life Painters in Hanoi offers a truly innovative perspective on modern Vietnamese history The book's ethnographic approach grounded in discussions with artists critics and collectors sheds light on a diverse art world making the work of significant interest to anthropologists and art historians as well as students and scholars concerned with interdisciplinary research on culture and society BOOK JACKET Painters in Hanoi Nora Annesley Taylor, 2009-07-31 Painting has played a significant role in modern Vietnam Postage stamps billboards and annual national exhibitions attest to its fundamental place in a country where painters may be hailed as national heroes and include among their number fervent nationalists propagandists even dissidents As Vietnamese painting has gained prominence in the contemporary transnational art circuits of Southeast Asia many artists have become millionaires yet Vietnamese painting is generally overlooked in art history surveys of the region Nora Taylor sets out here to change that Painters in Hanoi engages with twentieth century Vietnam through its artists and their works providing a new angle on a country most often portrayed through the lens of war and politics Drawing on interviews with artists cultural officers curators art critics and others in Hanoi Taylor surveys the impact artists have had on intellectual life in Vietnam The book shows them within their own complex community one fraught with tensions politicking and favoritism yet also a sense of belonging It describes their education the role of the government in the arts the rise and fall of individual artists their influence as active players in the politics of place and gender the audience for their work and how tourism and the international art market have influenced it The A to Z of Vietnam Bruce M. Lockhart, William J. Duiker, 2010-04-14 Vietnam became part of French Indochina in 1887 and did not regain its independence again until after the Vietnam War However despite a relatively peaceful two decades the country experienced little economic growth because of conservative leadership policies In an effort to change this stagnation Vietnamese authorities have committed to economic liberalization and enacted structural reforms needed to modernize the economy and to produce more competitive export driven industries The A to Z of Vietnam focuses on the recent changes and leadership of Vietnam while giving due attention to the earlier kingdoms the period of French Indochina the wars for liberation the Vietnam War and much more Hundreds of cross referenced A to Z dictionary entries are included on political economic social and cultural aspects as well as the major cities and geographic features This book also contains a chronology and introduction that traces Vietnam's history as well as a bibliography Cultures at War Tony Day, Maya H. T. Liem, 2018-08-06 The Cold War in Southeast Asia was a many faceted conflict driven by regional historical imperatives as much as by the contest between global superpowers The essays in this book offer the most detailed and probing examination to date of the cultural dimension of the Cold War in Southeast Asia Southeast Asian culture from the late 1940s to the late 1970s was primarily shaped by a long standing search for national identity and independence which took place in the context of intense rivalry between the United States and the Soviet Union with the Peoples Republic of China emerging in 1949 as another major international competitor for influence in Southeast Asia Based on fieldwork in Burma Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam the essays in this collection analyze the ways in which art literature film theater spectacle physical culture and the popular press represented Southeast Asian responses to the Cold War and commemorated that era s violent conflicts long after tensions had subsided Southeast Asian cultural reactions to the Cold War involved various solutions to the dilemmas of the newly independent nation states of the region What is common to all of the perspectives and works examined in this book is that they expressed social and aesthetic concerns that both antedated and outlasted the Cold War ones that never became simply aligned with the ideologies of either bloc Contributors Francisco B Benitez University of Washington Bo Bo Burmese writer SOAS University of London Michael Bodden University of Victoria Simon Creak Australian National University Gaik Cheng Khoo Australian National University Rachel Harrison SOAS University of London Barbara Hatley University of Tasmania Boitran Huynh Beattie Asiarta Foundation Jennifer Lindsay Australian National University

Winston, L. Chau-Pech, 2001-12-06 A rich space of criticism and document Of Vietnam moves contemporary figurings of Vietnam out of the nostalgic enclaves of the past and the stagnant places of a mythological present into the rich potential of our historical epoch This provocative book is the first to bring together works by photographers established and unpublished writers poets and artists from Vietnam and its diasporas and critical pieces by scholars of anthropology art history history and literary and cultural studies Focusing on issues of identity displacement language sexuality and class their contributions challenge and encourage readers to experience the multiplicity of experiences that make up the fabric of identity to Z features 60 concise and accessibly written accounts of the key ideas and currents underlying modern art in the region. These are accompanied by over 250 beautifully reproduced artworks from the collection of National Gallery Singapore and other public and private collections in Southeast Asia and beyond. The book offers an informative first encounter with art as well as refreshing perspectives and is a rewarding resource for students. Vietnam Bulletin, 1967 Art of Vietnam Catherine Noppe, Jean-François Hubert, 2023-12-28 Vietnam Scott Rutherford, 2002-12. Insight Guides, the world's largest visual travel guide series in association with Discovery Channel, the world's premier source of nonfiction entertainment, provides more insight than ever. Lockhart, William J. Duiker, 2006-02-27. Vietnam became part of French Indochina in 1887 and did not regain its independence again until after the Vietnam War. However, despite a relatively peaceful two decades, the country experienced little economic growth because of conservative leadership policies. In an effort to change this stagnation, Vietnamese authorities have committed to economic liberalization and enacted structural reforms needed to modernize the economy and to produce more competitive export-driven industries. The third edition of this dictionary focuses on the recent changes and leadership of Vietnam while giving due attention to the earlier kingdoms, the period of French Indochina, the wars for liberation, the Vietnam War, and much more. Hundreds of cross-referenced A to Z dictionary entries are included on political, economic, social, and cultural aspects, as well as the major cities and geographic features. This book also contains a chronology and introduction that traces Vietnam's history, as well as a bibliography. Soviet Socialist Realism and Art in the Asia-Pacific Alison Carroll, 2024-10-08. This study evaluates how the ideology of Socialist Realism, developed by the Soviets in policies and the practices of art, has been influential in the Asia-Pacific region from 1917 until today. Focusing primarily on Russia, then China, Vietnam, Korea, Singapore, Indonesia, the Philippines, and Australia, this book demonstrates how each society adopted and adapted the Soviet example to make some of the most important imagery of recent history. Included is an examination of how the practice of Western art history, the nature of art history in Asia, and the forces of the Cold War have led to this influence being inadequately acknowledged across Asia and more widely. The book will be relevant to those interested in art history, Asian studies, political history, and cultural history. International Women Artists and War, 1560-2023 Deborah A. Deacon, 2024-09-19. Like many of their male peers, women artists have used their chosen mediums to explore and express their reactions to the violence of war, which they frequently experienced firsthand. The 345 named artists discussed in this book come from diverse backgrounds across hundreds of years. The book divides the 652 covered works of art into five general categories: those that provide support for the war effort; those that oppose war and/or support peace; those that document the impacts of war on the individuals who fight and the civilians who experience it; those that commemorate and memorialize the events and participants in war; and general representations of those who fight. While most of the women who documented the impact of war on those who experienced it were professional artists, self-taught artists have told equally compelling stories in their works. Whether working in a studio or on the battlefield, the women's professionalism and dedication allowed them to convey the impact of war powerfully.

Reframing Modernism: Painting from Southeast Asia, Europe and Beyond Low Sze Wee, Horikawa Lisa, Phoebe Scott, 2016-03-31. What is modernism in Southeast Asia? What is modern art as embodied in the paintings of Southeast Asia? These questions and more are answered in Reframing Modernism: Painting from Southeast Asia, Europe and Beyond, published in conjunction with the exhibition of the same name. Featuring 217 works in full colour by 51 Southeast Asian and European artists from the Centre Pompidou and National Gallery Singapore, as well as other Southeast Asian collections in the region and beyond, this catalogue tells the compelling story of modernism as it developed across continents and reveals artists' powerful and sometimes surprising responses to modernity.

Return Engagements Viet Lê, 2021-04-12. In Return Engagements, artist and critic Vi t L examines contemporary art in Cambodia and Vi t Nam to rethink the entwinement of militarization, trauma, diaspora, and modernity in Southeast Asian art. Highlighting artists tied to Phnom Penh and Si G n and drawing on a range of visual art as well as documentary and experimental films, L points out that artists of Southeast Asian descent are often expected to address the twin traumas of armed conflict and modernization and shows how desirable art on these themes is on international art markets. As the global art market fetishizes trauma and violence, artists strategically align their work with those tropes in ways that L suggests allow them to reinvent such aesthetics and discursive spaces. By returning to and refashioning these themes, artists such as Tiffany Chung, Rithy Panh, and Sopheap Pich challenge categorizations of diasporic and local by situating themselves as insiders and outsiders relative to Cambodia and Vi t Nam. By doing so, they disrupt dominant understandings of place, time, and belonging in contemporary art.

Engaging Art Roslyn Bernstein, 2020-05-14. This book explores the tangled texture of the art world, a curious and mysterious space. In 60 essays drawn from around the globe, it reveals new dimensions about how artists make their art resist censorship and retain an independent creative spirit. The essays ask and answer several crucial questions: How do artists in Europe, the United States, Asia, the Middle East, and Latin and South America find space to live and work? How do artists follow their talent to make and exhibit original art in a politicized world where artistic freedom is often limited? How do smaller artistic venues survive the economic pressures and competition in the art market? Focusing on under-the-radar subjects, the reports, interviews, and essays illuminate the pain and pleasures of artistic production and the challenges faced by artists, curators, and gallerists.

Women Artists, Feminism

and the Moving Image Lucy Reynolds, 2019-08-22 What is the significance of gendered identification in relation to artists moving image How do women artists grapple with the interlinked narratives of gender discrimination and gender identity in their work In this groundbreaking book a diverse range of leading scholars activists archivists and artists explore the histories practices and concerns of women making film and video across the world from the pioneering German animator Lotte Reiniger to the influential African American filmmaker Julie Dash and the provocative Scottish contemporary artist Rachel Maclean Opening with a foreword from the film theorist Laura Mulvey and a poem by the artist film maker Lis Rhodes Women Artists Feminism and the Moving Image traces the legacies of early feminist interventions into the moving image and the ways in which these have been re configured in the very different context of today Reflecting and building upon the practices of recuperation that continue to play a vital role in feminist art practice and scholarship essays discuss topics such as how multiculturalism is linked to experimental and activist film history the function and nature of the essay film feminist curatorial practices and much more This book transports the reader across diverse cultural contexts and geographical contours addressing complex narratives of subjectivity representation and labour while juxtaposing cultures of film video and visual arts practice often held apart As the editor Lucy Reynolds argues it is at the point where art moving image and feminist discourse converge that a rich and dynamic intersection of dialogue and exchange opens up bringing to attention practices which might fall outside their separate spheres and offering fresh perspectives and insights on those already established in its histories and canons
