

A watercolor illustration of a rusted, dark-colored car, possibly a Volkswagen Beetle, lying on its side in a snowy, desolate landscape. The car is heavily weathered, with significant rust and peeling paint. A long, thin branch or stick leans against the car. In the background, there are bare, leafless trees and a pale, hazy sky. The overall mood is one of decay and abandonment.

Shirish Deshpande, 2020-11-21 Watercolor painting is one of the most exhilarating and most frustrating experiences one can have The watercolor medium is notorious for its unpredictability and unforgiving quality But the same unpredictability can be harnessed to create some of the most spontaneous and fresh artworks In this book you will learn Painting with watercolor using both transparent and opaque forms of watercolor Understanding shapes and values while painting Warm and cool colors Complementary colors and how to use them to add some pop to your paintings Creating interesting and harmonious compositions using o Unity o Contrast o Balance o Dominance o Repetition o Variety Basics of one point and two point perspective Coloring techniques o Applying washes o Layering and adding depth atmospheric perspective o Foreground background and out of focus elements o Hard and soft edges o Negative spaces and highlights o Exotic techniques for adding some zing to your paintings Of course the real learning happens by doing So you will apply all the techniques you learned so far in 10 step by step exercises A serene sunset The twin trees A still life painting An old wall covered with creeper plants vines Grass and the fence A waterfront house A rustic house Cabin in the snow Autumn tree near a lake The waterfall At the end of the book you will get links to video demonstrations for many of the paintings included in the book It s time to lose the fear of the watercolor and start enjoying it Happy painting

Why Art Cannot Be Taught James Elkins,2001-05-17 He also addresses the phenomenon of art critiques as a microcosm for teaching art as a whole and dissects real life critiques highlighting presuppositions and dynamics that make them confusing and suggesting ways to make them more helpful Elkins s no nonsense approach clears away the assumptions about art instruction that are not borne out by classroom practice For example he notes that despite much talk about instilling visual acuity and teaching technique in practice neither teachers nor students behave as if those were their principal goals He addresses the absurdity of pretending that sexual issues are absent from life drawing classes and questions the practice of holding up great masters and masterpieces as models for students capable of producing only mediocre art He also discusses types of art including art that takes time to complete and art that isn t serious that cannot be learned in studio art classes
