Painting degree zero [published on the occasion of the exhibition held at Cranbrook Museum of Art, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., 5 February - 2 April 2000; Fred Jones Jr. Art Museum, Norman, Okla., 20 September - 26 November 2000; Cleveland Center for Contemporary Art, Cleveland, Ohio, Spring 2002]. Cranbrook Museum of Art (Bloomfield Hills, Mich.), 2000 The PressureWashingBusiness. com Guide to Running Your Own Pressure

Washing Business PressureWashingBusiness.com, 2008 Abstract Expressionism Joan M. Marter, 2007 A collection of essays that discuss abstract expressionist art Beholding Ken Wilder, 2020-05-14 Beholding considers the spatially situated encounter between artwork and spectator It argues that artworks created for specific places or conditions structure a reciprocal encounter which is completed by the presence of a beholder These are works which demand the beholder's share but not as Ernst Gombrich famously claimed to sustain an illusion Rather Beholding reconfigures Gombrich's notion of the beholder's share as a set of licensed imaginative and cognitive projections Each chapter frames a particular work of art from the remit of a complementary theoretical text The book establishes a transhistorical notion of the spatially situated encounter and considers the role of the architectural host in bringing the beholder's orientation into play The book engages a diverse range of practices from Renaissance painting and group portraiture to intermedia practices of installation and performance art Written within the broad remit of reception aesthetics the book proposes a phenomenological theory of beholding argued through an in depth examination of artworks and their spatial contexts selected for their explanatory potential These various encounters allocate different constitutive roles to the beholder bringing not only spatial and temporal orientation into play but also a repertoire of anticipated ideas and beliefs Architecture and Abstraction Pier Vittorio Aureli, 2023-11-07 A landmark study of abstraction in architectural history theory and practice that challenges our assumptions about the meaning of abstract forms In this theoretical study of abstraction in architecture the first of its kind Pier Vittorio Aureli argues for a reconsideration of abstraction its meanings and its sources Although architects have typically interpreted abstraction in formal terms the purposeful reduction of the complexities of design to its essentials Aureli shows that abstraction instead arises from the material conditions of building production In a lively study informed by Walter Benjamin Karl Marx Alfred Sohn Rethel and other social theorists this book presents abstraction in architecture not as an aesthetic tendency but as a movement that arises from modern divisions of labor and consequent social asymmetries These divisions were anticipated by the architecture of antiquity which established a distinction between manual and intellectual labor and placed the former in service to the latter Further abstractions arose as geometry used for measuring territories became the intermediary between land and money and eventually produced the logic of the grid In our own time architectural abstraction serves the logic of capitalism and embraces the premise that all things can be exchanged even experience itself is a commodity To resist this turn Aureli seeks a critique of architecture that begins not by scaling philosophical heights but by standing at the ground level of material practice

Haecceities: Essentialism, Identity, and Abstraction Jeffrey Strayer, 2017-01-23 Haecceities Essentialism Identity and Abstraction is both an artistic and philosophical examination of the limits of Abstraction in art and of kinds of radical identity that are determined in the identification of those limits Building on his work Subjects and Objects Strayer shows how the fundamental conditions of making and apprehending works of art can be used in concert with language thought and perception as material for producing the more Abstract and radical artworks possible Certain limits of Abstraction and possibilities of radical identity are then identified that are critically and philosophically considered They prove to be so extreme that the concepts artwork abstraction identity and object in art philosophy and philosophy of art have to be reconsidered
