Pak Ethnicity And Psychology:

Pak Kenneth Monteiro,1995-04-01 Perceptions of Ethnicity, Religion, and Radicalization among Second-Generation Pakistani-Canadians Saad Ahmad Khan,2021-01-12 Why do they hate us The answer to a seemingly simple question made famous by U S President George W Bush in the wake of 9 11 has become more complex with the entrance of homegrown terrorists into many armed conflicts Why do they hate us so much that some of them try to kill us en masse even though they are born and raised with us go to school with us and work with us This book offers an in depth analysis to the phenomenon of radicalization of second generation Pakistani Canadians Based on interviews with second generation Pakistani Canadians from various backgrounds Saad Ahmad Khan argues that radicalization is a complex and layered process stemming from multiple sources ranging from childhood experiences to the role of Saudi Arabia in exporting its brand of Islam Individual social national and international factors need to be addressed holistically if radicalization of second generation individuals is to be pre emptied and subsequent generations saved from the scourge of violence and terrorism The Routledge International Handbook of Race, Culture and Mental Health Roy Moodley,Eunjung Lee,2020-10-27 This handbook presents a thorough examination of the intricate interplay of race ethnicity and culture in mental health historical origins subsequent transformations and the discourses generated from past and present mental health and wellness practices The text demonstrates how socio cultural identities including race gender class sexual orientation disability religion and age intersect with clinical work in a range of settings Case vignettes and recommendations for best practice help ground each in a clinical focus guiding practitioners and educators to actively increase their understanding of non Western and indigenous healing techniques as well as their awareness of contemporary mental health theories as a product of Western culture with a particular historical and cultural perspective The international contributors also discuss ways in which global mental health practices transcend racial cultural ethnic linguistic and political boundaries The Routledge International Handbook of Race Culture and Mental Health is an essential resource for students researchers and professionals alike as it addresses the complexity of mental health issues from a critical global perspective Islam, Race, and Pluralism in the Pakistani Diaspora Craig Considine,2017-07-06 This book explores the Pakistani diaspora in a transatlantic context enquiring into the ways in which young first and second generation Pakistani Muslim and non Muslim men resist hegemonic identity narratives and respond to their marginalised conditions Drawing on rich documentary ethnographic and interview material gathered in Boston and Dublin it explores the language of fear and how this fear has given rise to a politics of fear whose aim is to distract and divide communities Ethnicity, Immigration, and Psychopathology Ihsan Al-Issa,Michel Tousignant,1997-06-30 Includes statistics Religious Identity and Cultural Negotiation Jenny McGill,2016-07-22 Given increasing global migration and the importance of positive cross cultural relations across national borders this book offers an interdisciplinary and intercultural exploration of identity formation It uniquely draws from theology psychology and sociology engaging narrative and identity theories migration and identity studies and the theologies of identity and migration and builds on them in an unprecedented study of international migrants to construct an initial theology of Christian identity in migration New sociological research describes the social construction of religious ethnic and national identities among non North American evangelical graduates who entered the United States to pursue advanced academic studies from 1983 to 2013 It provides an intercultural account of Christian identity formation in the context of migration transnationalism and globalization It ultimately argues that an integral component of Christian identity making involves the concept of migration of movement toward a transformation Asian American Ethnicity and Communication William B. Gudykunst, 2000-10-17

In examining Asian American ethnicity and communication William Gudykunst begins by summarizing the cultural characteristics of Asian cultures that affect Asian Americans communication Next he looks at Asian American immigration patterns ethnic institutions and family patterns as well as at how ethnic and cultural identities influence Asian Americans communication The author focuses on how communication is similar and different among Chinese Americans Filipino Americans Japanese Americans Korean Americans and Vietnamese Americans Where applicable similarities and differences in communication between Asian Americans and European Americans are also examined Gudykunst concludes with a discussion of the role of communication in Asian immigrants acculturation to the United States The Geopsychology

Theory of International Relations in the 21st Century B. M. Jain, 2021-02-15 This book introduces an innovative theoretical construct of geopsychology to navigate the complex dynamics of international politics in the 21st century It explains how geopsychology is different from mainstream international relations theories in terms of primary actors human behavior spatial application instruments and key issues It argues that peace and stability in the troubled parts of the world warrants an imperative need for understanding psychological dispositions of non state actors and authoritarian regimes In The Geopsychology Theory of International Relations in the 21st Century Escaping the Ignorance Trap B M Jain unfolds that neither a global hegemon nor a cohort of powers could weaken their resolve and break their morale as proven in the cases of Iraq Afghanistan and North Korea Importantly the regional case studies India and Pakistan in South Asia North Korea and China in Northeast Asia and the U S involvement in the Middle East reveal how the psyche and thought processes of national and regional actors have been the driving force in triggering interstate conflicts and civil wars The book brilliantly illuminates how America became a conscious victim of the ignorance trap in Asia's volatile regions This must book offers easy solutions to complex conflicts to induce a peaceful change in world politics Development Cooperation between India and Neighbouring Countries: Possibilities and Challenges Prof. Subhrabaran Das, Dr. Salim Shah, Dr. Priyadarshi Dash, 2025-02-14 The present book deals with the possibilities and challenges of cooperation between India and her Neighbouring countries relating to areas of various economic aspects The special focus is given on four key areas viz Agriculture and Allied Activities Trade Finance and Development Demography and Social Sector Issues Sustainable Development Environmental Issues The book explores the possibility of development in different sectors of the economy towards fulfilling the SDGs through globalization and development cooperation so that it can be beneficial for the people in the region for creating income generating activities through overcoming the vicious cycle of poverty and inadequate access to the mainstream economy The book also explores the possibility of localized sustainable development in different sectors as well as the states of the North Eastern Region through development cooperation towards benefits of the stakeholders not only in this region but also of the neighbouring countries The book is expected to be valuable for the students researchers and academicians for further work on these areas It is also expected to be valuable for the policymakers dealing with foreign affairs and cross country economic issues

The Pakistan Review, 1953 Pakistan in Crisis Ashok Kapur, 2006-04-14 With these questions in mind Professor Kapur charts the continuous power struggles of Pakistan's ruling elites Using a historical and comparative approach he shows how the search for democracy and national identity has been hindered by army intervention political intrigue and the failure of Islam to unite the various ethnic factions While pessimistic about the chances for democracy in Pakistan he hopes that the democratic pluralism and broad based political activity emerging in much of Eastern Europe and the Third World will inspire ordinary Pakistanis to transform their country into a nation in spirit as well as in name

Sexual Offending and Mental Health Julia Houston, Sarah Galloway, 2008 Sexual Offending and Mental Health draws together theoretical clinical and mental health issues for the range of professionals working with sex offenders and those who have behaved in sexually inappropriate ways The book describes current influential models of sexual offending and the developmental psychological and social factors involved The Deadly Ethnic Riot Donald L. Horowitz,2023-11-15 Donald L Horowitz s comprehensive consideration of the structure and dynamics of ethnic violence is the first full scale comparative study of what the author terms the deadly ethnic riot an intense sudden lethal attack by civilian members of one ethnic group on civilian members of another ethnic group Serious frequent and destabilizing these events result in large numbers of casualties Horowitz examines approximately 150 such riots in about fifty countries mainly in Asia Africa and the former Soviet Union as well as fifty control cases With its deep and thorough scholarship incisive analysis and profound insights The Deadly Ethnic Riot will become the definitive work on its subject Furious and sadistic the riot is nevertheless directed against a precisely specified class of targets and conducted with considerable circumspection Horowitz scrutinizes target choices participants and organization the timing and supporting conditions for the violence the nature of the events that precede the riot the prevalence of atrocities during the violence the location and diffusion of riots and the aims and effects of riot behavior He finds that the deadly ethnic riot is a highly patterned but emotional event that tends to occur during times of political uncertainty He also discusses the crucial role of rumor in triggering riots the surprisingly limited role of deliberate organization and the striking lack of remorse exhibited by participants Horowitz writes clearly and eloquently without compromising the complexity of his subject With impressive analytical skill he takes up the important challenge of explaining phenomena that are at once passionate and calculative Donald L Horowitz s comprehensive consideration of the structure and dynamics of ethnic violence is the first full scale comparative study of what the author terms the deadly ethnic riot an intense sudden lethal attack by civilian members of one ethni

Downey, 2011-10-02 This project is unique in the field for a number of reasons both in structure and in content Specifically it will have leading experts on specific age groups Childhood to Adolescence Young Adulthood to Middle Age and The Elderly within the cultural groups of interest European Americans African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Native Americans contribute a chapter covering current research on both positive and negative functioning for each population Each chapter will present basic demographic information strengths that contribute to resilience and three significant challenges each group faces to maintaining mental health Each chapter will then include an integrative section where ideas are advanced about how the strengths of each group can be harnessed to address the challenges that group faces To conclude each chapter will propose future directions for research which addresses integrative approaches to mental health for each group and the implications that such approaches could have for future treatment The main points of each section of each chapter will be visually summarized in a concluding table

Racist Love Leslie Bow, 2021-12-13 In Racist Love Leslie Bow traces the ways in which Asian Americans become objects of anxiety and desire Conceptualizing these feelings as racist love she explores how race is abstracted and then projected onto Asianized objects Bow shows how anthropomorphic objects and images such as cartoon animals in children's books home decor and cute tchotchkes contemporary visual art and artificially intelligent robots function as repositories of seemingly positive feelings and attachment to Asianness At the same time Bow demonstrates that these Asianized proxies reveal how fetishistic attraction and pleasure serve as a source of anti Asian bias and violence By outlining how attraction to popular representations of Asianness cloaks racial resentment and fears of globalization Bow provides a new means of understanding the ambivalence surrounding Asians in the United States while offering a theory of the psychological affective and symbolic dynamics of racist love in contemporary America
