Terrorism and the US Drone Attacks in Pakistan Imdad Ullah, 2021-03-30 This book analyses the US drone attacks against terrorists in Pakistan to assess whether the pre-emptive use of combat drones to kill terrorists is ever legally justified Exploring the doctrinal discourse of pre-emption vis-à-vis the US drone attacks against terrorists in Pakistan the book shows that the debate surrounding this discourse encapsulates crucial tensions between the permission and limits of the right of self-defence Drawing from the long history of God-given and man-made laws of war this book employs positivism as a legal frame to explore and explain the doctrine of pre-emption and analyses the doctrine of the state's rights to self-defence as it stretches into pre-emptive or preventive use of force The book investigates why the US chose the recourse to pre-emption through the use of combat drones in the war on terror and whether there is a potential future for the pre-emption of terrorism through combat drones The author argues that the policy to kill first is easy to adopt however any disregard for the web of legal requirements surrounding the policy has the potential to undercut the legal claims of an armed act The book enables the framing and analysis of such controversies in legal terms as opposed to a choice between law and policy An examination of the legal dilemma concerning drone warfare this book will be of interest to academics in the field International Relations Asian Politics South Asian Studies and Security Studies in particular global security law new wars and emerging technologies of warfare Foreign Assistance Legislation for Fiscal Years 1990-91: without special title

Law and Drone Strikes in Pakistan Sikander Ahmed Shah, 2014-11-13 While conventional warfare has an established body of legal precedence the legality of drone strikes by the United States in Pakistan and elsewhere remains ambiguous This book explores the legal and political issues surrounding the use of drones in Pakistan Drawing from international treaty law customary international law and statistical data on the impact of the strikes Sikander Ahmed Shah asks whether drone strikes by the United States in Pakistan are in compliance with international humanitarian law The book questions how international law views the giving of consent between States for military action and explores what this means for the interaction between sovereignty and consent The book goes on to look at the socio political realities of drone strikes in Pakistan scrutinizing the impact of drone strikes on both Pakistani politics and US Pakistan relationships Topics include the Pakistan army government relationship the evolution of international institutions as a result of drone strikes and the geopolitical dynamics affecting the region As a detailed and critical examination of the legal and political challenges presented by drone strikes this book will be essential to scholars and students of the law of armed conflict security studies political science and international relations

The Judicialization of Politics in Pakistan Waris Husain, 2018-03-28 Since 2007 the Supreme Court of Pakistan has emerged as a dominant force in Pakistani politics through its hyper active use of judicial review or the power to overrule Parliament's laws and the Prime Minister's acts This hyper activism was on display during the Supreme Court's unilateral disqualification of Prime Minister Yousef Raza Gilani in 2012 under the leadership of Chief Justice Iftikhar Chaudhry Despite the Supreme Court's practical adoption of restraint subsequent to the retirement of Chief Justice Chaudhry in 2013 the Court has once again disqualified a prime minister Nawaz Sharif due to allegations of corruption in 2017 While many critics have focused on the substance of the Court's decisions in these cases sufficient focus is not paid to the amorphous case selection process of the Supreme Court of Pakistan In order to compare the relatively unregulated process of case selection in Pakistan to the more structured processes utilized by the Supreme Courts of the United States and India this book aims to understand the historical roots of judicial review in each country dating back to the colonial era extending through the foundational period of each nation impacting present day jurisprudence As a first in its kind this study comparatively examines these periods of history in order to contextualize a practical prescription to standardize the case selection process in the Supreme Court of Pakistan in a way that retains the Court s overall power while limiting its involvement in purely political issues This publication offers a critical and comparative view of the Supreme Court of Pakistan s recent involvement in political disputes due to the lack of a discerning case selection system that has otherwise been adopted by the Supreme Courts of India and the United States to varying degrees It will be of interest to academics in the fields of Asian Law South Asian Politics and Law and Comparative Law Library of Congress Subject Headings

Library of Congress,2006 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office,2006 Back to Pakistan Leslie Noyes Mass,2011-10-15 In 1962 a newly minted college graduate answered the call of President John F Kennedy and joined the fledgling Peace Corps Leslie Noyes Mass was assigned to Pakistan and given the directive to start a program any kind of educational program she could muster in a small Muslim village where she was the only Westerner and the only Peace Corps volunteer After a year she left the village frustrated and feeling that she had made no impact at all Nearly 50 years later she returned to discover a much changed Pakistan and a village that still remembers her She tells both her stories from 1962 and today by deftly interweaving her journal entries from 50 years ago with her current day story as a volunteer training female teachers for a Pakistani non governmental institution Leslie Mass captures the heart and the attention of the reader with her story of Pakistanis in 1962 and those of a new generation who are engaged in building a sustainable education system for their country s forgotten children In a series of interviews with Pakistanis from every social class and educational level Dr Mass gives voice to those who are taking responsibility for their country s educational problems and solving these problems within the traditions culture and religious understanding of their people Back to Pakistan A Fifty Year Journey is a compelling look into a country as it goes from its infancy into the 21st century
