Ethno-political Conflict in Pakistan Rizwan

Zeb,2019-12-12 This book critically examines the causes of the increase in insurgent violence in Balochistan and explores the relations between the national government of Pakistan and the province of Balochistan Based on historical analysis the book argues that the national government of Pakistan and the leaders of Balochistan both use a standard narrative when dealing with each other According to the Baloch narrative Islamabad exploits Balochistan s natural resources without giving Balochistan its due share and has never accepted and granted Balochistan equal rights The centre s narrative emphasizes the tribal character of the Baloch society and suggests that the Baloch elite hinder Balochistan s integration with the federation This book demonstrates that both narratives are inherently flawed and presents a precipitous picture of the problem of insurgent violence It also shows that the Baloch leadership is divided along tribal lines and lacks a unified voice and proposes that the Baloch elite use the narrative of enduring injustice only as a source of politicization of Baloch ethnicity when an actual or perceived injustice is taking place An important addition to the literature on ethno political conflicts this unique analysis of the importance of narrative in the imagination of political movements will be of interest to scholars in the fields of South Asian studies ethnic conflicts separatist and political movements and Asian politics Islam in South Asia Jamal Malik,2008-10-31 Islamic South Asia has become a focal point in academia Where did Muslims come from How did they fare in interacting with Hindu cultures How did they negotiate identity as ruling and ruled minorities and majorities Part I covers early Muslim expansion and the formative phase in context of initial cultural encounter app 700 1300 Part II views the establishment of Muslim empire cultures oscillating between Islamic and Islamicate centralised and regionalised power app 1300 1700 Part III is composed in the backdrop of regional centralisation territoriality and colonial rule displaying processes of integration and differentiation of Muslim cultures in colonial setting app 1700 1930 Tensions between Muslim pluralism and singularity evolving in public sphere make up the fourth cluster app 1930 2002 South Asia's Weak States T. Paul,2010-08-09 South Asia which consists of eight states of different sizes and capabilities is characterized by high levels of insecurity at the inter state intra state and human level insecurity that is manifest in both traditional and non traditional security problems especially transnational terrorism fuelled by militant religious ideologies To explain what has caused and contributed to the perpetual insecurity and human suffering in the region this book engages scholars of international relations comparative politics historical sociology and economic development among others to reveal and analyze the key underlying and proximate drivers It argues that the problems are driven largely by two critical variables the presence of weak states and weak cooperative interstate norms Based on this analysis and the conclusions drawn the book recommends specific policies for making the region secure and for developing the long lasting inter and intra state cooperative mechanisms necessary for the perpetuation of that security The Weaknesses in the International Protection of Minority Rights Javaid Rehman,2021-10-05 The issue of minority rights continues to occupy a sensitive position in international law Historical as well as contemporary events show that the subject is also capable of engulfing the international community as a whole The contention of the present study is that international law is in itself a difficult medium for providing adequate rights for minorities and for effectively safeguarding those rights This volume analyses the weaknesses in the international protection of minority rights through a detailed examination of the practices and policies of Pakistan Thought provoking and original in its approach this volume will prove to be of enormous value to international human rights lawyers and to scholars engaged in the study of minority rights in South Asia and Pakistan
