Pakistans Democracy At Work:

Pakistan's Democracy at Work Kanwal Kishore Bhardwaj,1998-01-01 Pakistan Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee,2013-04-04 Britain enjoys a close relationship and has long established ties with Pakistan which has real poverty and serious security problems But the Committee is concerned that not enough tax is raised in Pakistan to fully finance improvements in the quality of life for poor people Accordingly the UK Government is called to work with other donor countries to encourage joint and concerted efforts to require progress on tax policy and revenue collection within Pakistan use its influence within the International Monetary Fund to ensure this key institution also presses for urgent reform of Pakistan s tax system support a nationwide strategic communication plan within Pakistan to explain the need and benefits of tax policy change and to build domestic political momentum for reform Furthermore it is vital for Pakistan and its relations with external aid donors that it provides clear evidence that it will own and implement an effective anti corruption strategy DFID must likewise set measurable targets against which to measure and confirm positive impacts arising from effective investment in anti corruption measures In more detailed comments the value delivered by the DFID Maternal and New born Health Programme is acknowledged but scepticism is expressed about recent efforts to scale up at a provincial level Closer to home the Committee also calls on UK DFID to explore innovative ways to work more closely with the UK Pakistani diaspora to improve their participation in monitoring DFID projects and where appropriate to align diaspora funding and remittance flows to Pakistan with DFID supported programmes Pakistan, Islamisation, Army and Foreign Policy Bidanda M. Chengappa,2004 Relates To Islamization Starting From Zia In Pakistan Its Effect On The Army Pakistan S Foreign Policy In Relation To Kashmir And Nepal Has 4 Appendices Concerning Mushraf S Interviews With Asian Age The Guardian His Press Conference Associate Press Of Pakistan News Summary Breakdown in Pakistan Masooda Bano,2012-04-25 Thirty percent of foreign development aid is channeled through NGOs or community based organizations to improve service delivery to the poor build social capital and establish democracy in developing nations However growing evidence suggests that aid often erodes rather than promotes cooperation within developing nations This book presents a rare micro level account of the complex decision making processes that bring individuals together to form collective action platforms It then examines why aid often breaks down the very institutions for collective action that it aims to promote Breakdown in Pakistan identifies concrete measures to check the erosion of cooperation in foreign aid scenarios Pakistan is one of the largest recipients of international development aid and therefore the empirical details presented are particularly relevant for policy The book s argument is equally applicable to a number of other developing countries and has important implications for recent discussions within the field of economics Pakistan Affairs ,1986 Pakistan Mohammad A. Chaudhry,2024-10-07 It was a pleasant surprise for me Ashraf Chaudhry a capable and inspiring professor of English Literature and my friend and my colleague of 35 years turn into a forceful political analyst an enlightened commentator of national and international affairs and an active sponsor of interfaith harmony in a foreign land I have been reading his discourses on varied subjects with interest and am always impressed by the deep thinking and extensive reading that goes into writing them This collection is a valuable contribution and should be welcomed by those who wish to read thoughts of a mature Pakistani mind in real perspective Prof M H Hamdani former Principal F G Syed College Rawalpindi Mr Ashraf Chaudhry is one of Pakistan Link s most distinguished writers His articles are studded with facts and figures that are strikingly revealing and wholly incontrovertible The more learned and serious minded readers admire Mr Chaudhry for his insight scholarship and perspicacity Akhtar Mahmud Faruqui editor Pakistan Link In Rawalpindi Professor Ashraf Chaudhry and I were neighbors He was my senior When the sub continent was divided in 1947 and PAKistan emerged as a new State our parents migrated from the Indian territory to Pakistan Prof Chaundhry was a very brilliant and hard working student from his very childhood He is a self made man I have read some of his articles and columns in the Pakistan Link I was much impressed by the candidness and clarity of vision he brings to his writings He supports democracy and condemns dictaorship He writes on human rights and human values and believes in the presence of goodness in all human beings He rejects sectarian and radical approach in religion and stresses on the need of a pluralist aspect of religion Often he underpins the problems offers cautiously some solutions and is never hesitant in naming the culprits He rewards and censures the same political actors depending on their performance and hold no personal grudge against any one of them Dr Maqsood Jafri author and political activist

Challenge, Continuity, and Change in Pakistan Amit Ranjan,Ian Talbot,2025-09-30 This book brings a multi disciplinary approach to studying Pakistan s contemporary political social and environmental challenges It offers insights from various disciplines to show the interconnectedness of many of Pakistan s problems and their historical roots The analysis includes issues of political alienation and exclusion vulnerability to climate change induced disasters and how such challenges might be mitigated The case studies in the book reveal that reality is complex and that demographic social and technological change is moving apace in Pakistan This dynamism points to another aspect of Pakistan and its resilience in the face of manmade and natural disasters An increasingly youthful and urbanised population is challenging social inequalities and power structures whilst the state attempts to respond in old ways to maintain order and stability The emergence of overseas Pakistani communities and their connectedness with the homeland is another growing development with ramifications for politics and society A significant contribution on critical affairs in Pakistan this book investigates if the country is moving towards a critical crossroads in its development It will be of interest to historians and political scientists of Modern South Asia as well as geographers interested in examining impact of climate change

Congress. Senate. Committee on Armed Services. Subcommittee on Personnel, 2005 Good Governance Reform Agenda in Pakistan Sohail Mahmood, 2007 Pakistan after fifty eight years of existence was faced with a governance crisis Certain significant political and economic developments in the international environment were having a profound impact on the country Pakistan was faced with complex and daunting challenges threatening its stability These challenges were regional dynamics after the launch of the Global War on Terrorism by the USA democratisation the universal quest for re inventing government the apparent triumph of capitalism and the paradigm shift towards sustainable development This book presents political economic legal and public issues during the reformation era of Pakistan s decentralising government

Constructing 'Pakistan' through Knowledge Production in International Relations and Area Studies Ahmed W.

Waheed, 2019-11-02 This book analyses the discourse on Pakistan by exploring the knowledge production processes through which the International Relations community Asian and South Asian area study centres and think tanks construct Pakistan s identity This book does not attempt to trace how Pakistan has been historically defined explained or understood by the International Relations interpretive communities or to supplant these understandings with the author s version of what Pakistan is Instead this study focuses on investigating how the identity of Pakistan is fixed or stabilized via practices of the interpretive communities In other words this book attempts to address the following questions How is the knowledge on Pakistan produced discursively How is this knowledge represented in the writings on Pakistan What are the conditions under which it is possible to make authoritative claims about Pakistan Communism in Pakistan Kamran Asdar Ali, 2015-05-27 Pakistan today stands at a critical juncture in its short history of existence While much has been written about Pakistan little is known about Communism or left leaning politics in the country post Partition which played a key role in shaping Pakistani politics today Kamran Asdar Ali here presents the first extensive look at Pakistan s communist and working class movement The author critically engages with the history of Pakistan s early years while paying special attention to the rise and fall of the Communist Party of Pakistan CPP from Partition in 1947 to the aftermath of Bangladeshi independence in 1971 Since its formation in 1947 as a homeland for South Asian Muslims Pakistan has been a configuration of shifting alliances and competing political and social ideologies Pakistan has experienced three military takeovers and is plagued with geopolitical conflict from Kashmir to Baluchistan Waziristan and while these aspects of Pakistan make headlines in order to understand the complexities of these events it is vital to understand the state s relationship throughout history with its divergent political and ethnic voices One dominant feature of the state along with its emphasis on the Islamic nature of its polity has been the non resolution of its ethnic problem while the history of Pakistan is often viewed through the lense of unified Muslim nationalism the author here also explores the history of Pakistan s often tense relationship with its various ethnic groups Baluch Pathan Sindhis Punjabis and Bengalis Shedding light on a vital and little researched aspect of Pakistani history this book shows that military coups Islamic radicalization and terrorist activities do not constitute the sum total of Pakistan s history that it too has had a history that included the activities of communist intellectuals and activists

The Future of Pakistan Stephen P. Cohen, 2011-10-01 With each passing day Pakistan becomes an even more crucial player in world affairs Home of the world's second largest Muslim population epicenter of the global jihad location of perhaps the planet's most dangerous borderlands and armed with nuclear weapons this South Asian nation will go a long way toward determining what the world looks like ten years from now The Future of Pakistan presents and evaluates several scenarios for how the country will develop evolve and act in the near future as well as the geopolitical implications of each Led by renowned South Asia expert Stephen P Cohen a team of authoritative contributors looks at several pieces of the Pakistan puzzle The book begins with Cohen's broad yet detailed overview of Pakistan placing it within the context of current day geopolitics and international economics Cohen's piece is then followed by a number of shorter more tightly focused essays addressing more specific issues of concern Cohen's fellow contributors hail from America Europe India and Pakistan itself giving the book a uniquely international and comparative perspective They address critical factors such as the role and impact of radical groups and militants developments in specific key regions such as Punjab and the rugged frontier with Afghanistan and the influence of and interactions with India Pakistan's archrival since birth The book also breaks down relations with other international powers such as China and the United States The all important military and internal security apparatus come under scrutiny as do rapidly morphing social and gender issues Political and party developments are examined along with the often amorphous division of power between Islamabad and the nation's regions and local powers Uncertainty about Pakistan's trajectory persists The Future of Pakistan helps us understand the current circumstances the relevant actors and their motivation the critic

A comparative study of elite English-medium schools, public schools, and Islamic madaris in contemporary Pakistan Akhtar Hassan Malik, 2015-04-12 This ethnographic study examines the role of differing school knowledge in reproducing various social classes in the society It was observed that an unequal availability of capital resources agents class habitus and the type of their cultural currency act as selection mechanisms that clearly favour some social groups over others The ruling classes ensure the transfer of their power and privilege to their children by providing them with quality education in elite schools The disadvantaged classes are excluded from these unique institutions by both social and economic sanctions They have no other option than to educate their children either in public schools or Islamic madaris As a result inequitable educational opportunities consolidate the existing social class hierarchy

Selections from Regional Press , 2008-04 The UK's foreign policy approach to Afghanistan and Pakistan Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, Richard Ottaway, 2011-03-02 In this report the Foreign Affairs Committee calls on the British Government to use its influence to persuade the US to engage more fully and swiftly with the process of political reconciliation in Afghanistan if the US wishes to disengage its forces there Although the current international emphasis favours intense military pressure aimed at defeating the insurgency it is clear that military pressure alone is not enough to bring security and stability to Afghanistan The evidence presented to the Committee has suggested that the current full scale and highly intensive ISAF counter insurgency campaign is not succeeding The Committee question the fundamental assumption that success in Afghanistan can be bought through a strategy of clear hold and build The distinction between al Qaeda and the Taliban is crucial to generating appropriate policy responses in Afghanistan The Committee says that despite the significant resources that have been invested in Afghanistan and the enduring wholehearted and admirable commitment and sacrifices of British personnel the UK has not yet achieved its stated goals There is also evidence that the core foreign policy justification for the UK's continued presence in Afghanistan namely that it is necessary in the interests of UK national security may have been achieved some time ago given the apparently limited strength of al Qaeda in Afghanistan The security rationale behind the UK Government's decision to announce the 2015 deadline for the unconditional withdrawal of UK combat forces remains unclear and there are a number of potential risks inherent in such an approach
