In Search of Kings and Conquerors Lisa Cooper, 2016-01-28 At the height of her career Bell journeyed into the heart of the Middle East retracing the steps of the ancient rulers who left tangible markers of their presence in the form of castles palaces mosques tombs and temples Among the many sites she visited were Ephesus Binbirkilise and Carchemish in modern day Turkey as well as Ukhaidir Babylon and Najaf within the borders of modern Iraq Lisa Cooper here explores Bell s achievements emphasizing the tenacious inquisitive side of her extraordinary personality the breadth of her knowledge and her overall contribution to the archaeology of the Middle East Featuring many of Bell s own photographs this is a unique portrait of a remarkable life Palace and Mosque at Ukhaiṣir - A Study in Early Mohammadan Architecture Gertrude Bell,2020-05-27 Palace and Mosque at Ukhai ir A Study in Early Mohammadan Architecture is a 1914 work by Gertrude Bell that explores the origins and history of Islamic architecture In this volume she has brought together materials that relate to the earliest phases of Mohammadan architecture in order to consider and analyse the circumstances under which it arose and the roots from whence it sprang Contents include Q air Mudj ah And A sh n Qa r I Sh r n Genesis Of The Early Mohammadan Palace The Fa ade The Mosque The Date Of Ukhai ir Ukhai ir arch construction Ukhai ir arch construction Ukhai ir south side of court B etc Gertrude Margaret Lowthian Bell CBE 1868 1926 was an English writer political officer traveller archaeologist and administrator She became an important policy maker in the British Empire as a result of her extensive knowledge and contacts which she built up through her numerous travels in Mesopotamia Greater Syria Asia Minor and Arabia Other notable works by this author include Poems from the Divan of Hafiz 1892 The Desert and the Sown 1907 and Mountains of the Servants of God 1910 This classic work is being republished now in a new edition with specially curated introductory material Palace and Mosque at Ukhaidir Gertrude Lowthian Bell,2015-06-25 Excerpt from Palace and Mosque at Ukhaidir A Study in Early Mohanmadan Architecture I have attempted in this book to bring together the materials so far as they are known which bear upon the earliest phases of Mohammedan architecture to consider the circumstances under which it arose and the roots from which it sprang No development of civilization or of the arts which serve and adorn civilization has burst full fledged from the forehead of the god and architecture which is the first and most permanent of the arts reflects with singular fidelity the history of its creators Not only does their culture stand revealed in the crumbling walls which sheltered them and in the monuments raised for perpetual remembrance over their bones but the links which bound them to that which had gone before arc therein confessed as well as their own contribution to the achievements of their predecessors to mechanical skilfulness to utility and to beauty It is the nature and the extent of this contribution which is of vital importance to the student and it is this which lends to architecture its keenest significance What then was the contribution of the first builders of Islam It must be confessed that the question admits of no very striking rejoinder The Mohammedan invaders were essentially nomadic their dwelling was the black tent their grave the desert sands The inhabitants of the rare oases of western and central Arabia were content as they are to day with a rude architecture of sun dried brick and palm trunks unadorned by any intricate device of the imagination and unsuited to any but the simplest needs Even the great national shrine at Mecca the sacred house of the Ka bah was innocent of subsidiary constructions It is true that on the northern trade route the rock cut tombs of Madain Salih and of Petra bear witness to a higher order of artistic impulse but it was an impulse which borrowed its power from without from Hellenized Egypt and from Hellenized Syria If there were an indigenous Arabian architecture worthy of the name it can only have existed in the southern limits of the peninsula where as yet exploration has been too imperfect to afford data for argument nor is there evidence to show that in the seventh century of our era it can have played a part in the development of the northern tribes Upon the northern frontiers the influence of the Byzantine and of the Sasanian empires would seem to have been predominant and when the invaders established themselves in provinces which had been ruled from Constantinople or from Ctesiphon they employed Greek and Persian artificers to fulfil their newly developed requirements and to satisfy their newly developed taste for architectural magnificence About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works embraced the scientific and philosophical heritage of Classical Antiquity as a cultural and educational ideal Along with this philosophical humanism a literary humanism was cultivated by litterateurs poets and government secretaries This renaissance was marked by a powerful assertion of individualism in the domains of literary creativity and political action It thrived in a remarkably cosmopolitan atmosphere Baghdad the center of the Abb sid empire and of Buyid rule Humanism in the Renaissance of Islam Joel L.
