McMahon,2009-10-20 Winner of the 2008 Chicago Folklore Prize Felicia R McMahon breaks new ground in the presentation and analysis of emerging traditions of the Lost Boys a group of parentless youths who fled Sudan under tragic circumstances in the 1990s With compelling insight McMahon analyzes the oral traditions of the DiDinga Lost Boys about whom very little is known Her vibrant ethnography provides intriguing details about the performances and conversations of the young DiDinga in Syracuse New York It also offers important insights to scholars and others who work with refugee groups The author argues that the playful traditions she describes constitute a strategy by which these young men proudly position themselves as preservers of DiDinga culture and as harbingers of social change rather than as victims of war Drawing ideas from folklore linguistics drama and play theory the author documents the danced songs of this unique group Her inclusion of original song lyrics translated by the singers and descriptions of conversations convey the voices of the young men Well researched and carefully developed this book makes an original contribution to our understanding of refugee populations and tells a compelling story at the same time White Bear Clan Black Thorn Will Welton,2009-05-04

Black Thorn was a self schooled man in the facts of life He masterminded the largest train robbery of the early 1900 s His father had married a woman supposed to be a Creek Indian who was the daughter of a Freedman slave of the Creek Nation His father had run Thorn and his sister off from home because he didn t want anything to do with having half Black children Thorns adventures and holdups that he was involved in up to the 1910 He found what he thought was true love bought a homestead and built the nicest house in fifty miles King Sword in Another World Di Jian,2020-06-02 The intertwined trees were so big that one couldn t even see the sunlight At this moment Qing Hun who was an explorer was extremely regretful If he had known that he would not be able to get out of this primeval forest he would not have come by himself He used the thick branch in his hand to pull at the dense shrubs and weeds growing on the ground as he walked He had been lost for five days his cell phone was dead the compass had been broken in the fight with the Wolf and his leg had been bitten by the Wolf
