War Tourism Bertram M. Gordon, 2018-11-15 As German troops entered Paris following their victory in June 1940 the American journalist William L Shirer observed that they carried cameras and behaved as naive tourists One of the first things Hitler did after his victory was to tour occupied Paris where he was famously photographed in front of the Eiffel Tower Focusing on tourism by German personnel military and civil and French civilians during the war as well as war related memory tourism since War Tourism addresses the fundamental linkages between the two As Bertram M Gordon shows Germans toured occupied France by the thousands in groups organized by their army and guided by suggestions in magazines such as Der Deutsche Wegleiter für Paris The German Guide for Paris Despite the hardships imposed by war and occupation many French civilians continued to take holidays Facilitated by the Popular Front legislation of 1936 this solidified the practice of workers vacations leading to a postwar surge in tourism After the end of the war the phenomenon of memory tourism transformed sites such as the Maginot Line fortresses The influx of tourists with links either directly or indirectly to the war took hold and continues to play a significant economic role in Normandy and elsewhere As France moved from wartime to a postwar era of reconciliation and European Union memory tourism has held strong and exerts significant influence across the country

Montreal Dany Fougères, Roderick MacLeod, 2018-04-06 Surrounded by water and located at the heart of a fertile plain the Island of Montreal has been a crossroads for Indigenous peoples European settlers and today's citizens and an inland port city for the movement of people and goods into and out of North America Commemorating the city's 375th anniversary Montreal The History of a North American City is the definitive two volume account of this fascinating metropolis and its storied hinterland This comprehensive collection of essays filled with hundreds of illustrations photographs and maps draws on human geography and environmental history to show that while certain distinctive features remain unchanged Mount Royal the Lachine Rapids of the Saint Lawrence River human intervention and urban evolution mean that over time Montrealers have had drastically different experiences and historical understandings Significant issues such as religion government social conditions the economy labour transportation culture and entertainment and scientific and technological innovation are treated thematically in innovative and diverse chapters to illuminate how people's lives changed along with the transformation of Montreal. This history of a city in motion presents an entire picture of the changes that have marked the region as it spread from the old city of Ville Marie into parishes, autonomous towns, boroughs and suburbs on and off the island. The first volume encompasses the city up to 1930, vividly depicting the lives of First Nations prior to the arrival of Europeans, colonization by the French and the beginning of British Rule. The crucial roles of waterways portaging paths and trails as the primary means of travelling and trade are first examined before delving into the construction of canals, railways and the first major roads. Nineteenth-century industrialization created a period of near total change in Montreal as it became Canada's leading city and witnessed staggering population growth from less than 20 000 people in 1800 to over one million by 1930. The second volume treats the history of Montreal since 1930, the year that the Jacques Cartier Bridge was opened and allowed for the outward expansion of a region which before had been confined to the island. From the Great Depression and Montreal's role as a munitions manufacturing centre during the Second World War to major cultural events like Expo 67, the twentieth century saw Montreal grow into one of the continent's largest cities requiring stringent management of infrastructure, public utilities and transportation. This volume also extensively studies the kinds of political debate with which the region and country still grapple regarding language, nationalism, federalism and self-determination. Contributors include Philippe Apparicio INRS, Guy Bellavance INRS, Laurence Bherer University of Montreal, Stéphane Castonguay UQTR, the late Jean-Pierre Collin INRS, Magda Fahrni UQAM, the late Jean-Marie Fecteau UQAM, Dany Fougères UQAM, Robert Gagnon UQAM, Danielle Gauvreau Concordia, Annick Germain INRS, Janice Harvey Dawson College, Annie-Claude Labrecque independent scholar, Yvan Lamonde McGill, Daniel Latouche INRS, Roderick MacLeod independent scholar, Paula Negron-Poblete University of Montreal, Normand Perron INRS, Martin Petitclerc UQAM, Christian Poirier INRS, Claire Poitras INRS, Mario Polèse INRS, Myriam Richard unaffiliated, Damaris Rose INRS, Anne-Marie Sguin INRS, Gilles Sénécal INRS, Valérie Shaffer independent scholar, Richard Shearmur McGill, Sylvie Taschereau UQTR, Michel Trépanier INRS, Laurent Turcot UQTR, Nathalie Vachon INRS and Roland Viau University of Montreal.
