Patronage, Brokerage, Entrepreneurship, and the Chinese Community of New York Bernard P. Wong, 1988

Patronage, Brokerage, Entrepreneurship, and the Chinese Community of New York Bernard P. Wong, 1974 The Chinese in Silicon Valley Bernard P. Wong, 2006 Bernard Wong examines the complex role of Chinese American scientists and engineers in their ever increasing role in Silicon Valley where those who settle there must learn how to prosper despite a changing cultural identity changes in family life and new citizenship Voluntary Organizations in the Chinese

Diaspora Khun Eng Kuah-Pearce, Evelyn Du-Dehart, 2006-02-01 Do Chinese voluntary organizations continue to have a role in modern societies enmeshed in a globalizing world that questions continuation of the nation state and ethnic identity This book argues that Chinese voluntary organizations continue to play a significant role in both the established and new Chinese communities in the Diaspora They are able to do so because of their ability to transform their organizational structure and functions At the same time they are able to reinvent their own images to suit their co ethnic community and the wider polity The uniqueness of this volume lies in its integration of historical and contemporary approaches to the study of traditional Chinese voluntary organizations in the Diaspora The chapters explore how the Chinese voluntary organizations continue to fulfil the needs of the Chinese community in different parts of the world and do this by both localizing and globalizing their functions and roles in the countries where they have established roots The contributors cover traditional Chinese voluntary organizations from Asia to Australia North America and Europe examining not only their activities in established Chinese communities such as Singapore and Malaysia but also in the new emerging Chinese communities in Canada and Eastern Europe This allows the readers to compare and contrast the voluntary organizations across countries and across time Readership for this book includes scholars and students of Chinese Studies Asian Studies Anthropology Sociology Diaspora Studies History Social Organizations and the general educated Chinese population Ethnoburb Wei Li, 2008-12-09 Winner of the 2009 Book Award in Social Sciences Association for Asian American Studies This innovative work provides a new model for the analysis of ethnic and racial settlement patterns in the United States and Canada Ethnoburbs suburban ethnic clusters of residential areas and business districts in large metropolitan areas are multiracial multiethnic multicultural multilingual and often multinational communities in which one ethnic minority group has a significant concentration but does not necessarily constitute a majority Wei Li documents the processes that have evolved with the spatial transformation of the Chinese American community of Los Angeles and that have converted the San Gabriel Valley into ethnoburbs in the latter half of the twentieth century and she examines the opportunities and challenges that occurred as a result of these changes Traditional ethnic and immigrant settlements customarily take the form of either ghettos or enclaves Thus the majority of scholarly publications and mass media covering the San Gabriel Valley has described it as a Chinatown located in Los Angeles suburbs Li offers a completely different approach to understanding and analyzing this fascinating place By conducting interviews with residents a comparative spatial examination of census data and other statistical sources and fieldwork coupled with her own holistic view of the area Li gives readers an effective and fine tuned socio spatial analysis of the evolution of a new type of racially defined place The San Gabriel Valley tells a unique story but its evolution also speaks to those experiencing a similar type of ethnic and racial conurbation In sum Li sheds light on processes that are shaping other present and future ethnically and racially diverse communities The concept of the ethnoburb has redefined the way geographers and other scholars think about ethnic space place and process This book will contribute significantly to both theoretical and empirical studies of immigration by presenting a more intensive and thorough take on arguments about spatial and social processes in urban and suburban America

Diaspora and Class Consciousness Shanshan Lan,2012 This project adopts an interracial framework in studying the convergence and divergence of minority experiences in a highly racialized urban setting treating the Chinese immigrant experience as a pivot through which to examine the complex process of the multiracial transformation of white majority neighborhoods But it also goes beyond the hegemonic black white binary in studying race relations in the United States exploring the interconnectedness among different minority experiences and aiming to bridge the gap between a U S centered view of race and a transnational perspective generated by recent scholarship on migration and transnationalism

Asian American History Huping Ling,2023-08-11 A comprehensive survey Asian American History places Asian immigration to America in international and domestic contexts and explores the significant elements that define Asian America imperialism and global capitalist expansion labor and capital race and ethnicity immigration and exclusion family and work community and gender roles assimilation and multiculturalism panethnicity and identity transnationalism and globalization and new challenges and opportunities It is an up to date and easily accessible resource for high school and college students as well as anyone who is interested in Asian American history Asian American History Covers the major and minor Asian American ethnic groups It presents the myriad and poignant stories of a diverse body of Asian Americans from illiterate immigrants to influential individuals within a broad and comparative framework offering microscopic narratives as well as macroscopic analysis and overviews Utilizes both primary and secondary sources employs data and surveys and incorporates most recent scholarly discourses Attractive and accessible by incorporating voices and illustrations of the contemporaries and by using straightforward language and concise syntax while maintaining a reasonable level of scholarly depth Special features Each chapter features Significant Events Sidebars incorporating primary sources or scholarly debates Review Questions and Further Readings to aid and enhance student learning experience Bibliographies charts maps photographs and tables are included Written by a preeminent historian with four decades of teaching research and publishing experiences in Asian American history it is the best book on the subject to date

Chinese Migrant Networks and Cultural Change Adam McKeown,2001-05 Inspired by recent work on diaspora and cultural globalization Adam McKeown asks in this new book How were the experiences of different migrant communities and hometowns in China linked together through common networks Chinese Migrant Networks and Cultural Change argues that the political and economic activities of Chinese migrants can best be understood by taking into account their links to each other and China through a transnational perspective Despite their very different histories Chinese migrant families businesses and villages were connected through elaborate networks and shared institutions that stretched across oceans and entire continents Through small towns in Qing and Republican China thriving enclaves of businesses in South Chicago broad based associations of merchants and traders in Peru and an auspicious legacy of ancestors in Hawaii migrant Chinese formed an extensive system that made cultural and commercial exchange possible Chinatown Min Zhou,2010 Ethnic enclaves as an alternative means of incorporation into the larger society Contemporary Chinese America Min Zhou,2009-04-07 A sociologist of international migration examines the Chinese American experience
