Patterns In Russian Literature II Notes On Classics:

Patterns in Russian Literature II William Woodin Rowe,1988 Lermontov's "A Hero of Our Time" Lewis Bagby,2002-06-05 Mikhail Lermontov's book A Hero of Our Time was written in 1840 and is an important work of psychological realism This volume includes articles by theorists from various perspectives Chekhov and Russian Religious Culture Julie W. De Sherbinin,1997 Chekhov and Russian Religious Culture is an innovative study of the Virgin Mary and the saintly harlots Mary of Egypt and Mary Magdalene as a cultural paradigm encoded in Chekhov's prose De Sherbinin establishes the authority of the Marian paradigm in nineteenth century Russian culture with a comprehensive overview of salient religious and literary texts then offers critical readings of more than fifteen Chekhov stories including key works such as Peasants Peasant Women and My Life De Sherbinin argues that Chekhov inverts and displaces the Christian meanings of Marian texts in order to reveal a vast array of problematized relationships to the canonized figures This illuminating semiotic reading of Chekhov explores questions of female identity as it probes the mindset of Russian Orthodox popular culture

Dostoevsky's Dialectics and the Problem of Sin Ksana Blank,2010-07-31 In Dostoevsky's Dialectics and the Problem of Sin Ksana Blank borrows from ancient Greek Chinese and Christian dialectical traditions to formulate a dynamic image of Dostoevsky's dialectics distinct from Hegelian dialectics as a philosophy of compatible contradictions Expanding on the classical triad of Goodness Beauty and Truth Blank guides us through Dostoevsky's most difficult paradoxes goodness that begets evil beautiful personalities that bring about grief and criminality that brings about salvation Dostoevsky's philosophy of contradictions this book demonstrates contributes to the development of antinomian thought in the writings of early twentieth century Russian religious thinkers and to the development of Bakhtin's dialogism Dostoevsky's Dialectics and the Problem of Sin marks an important and original intervention into the enduring debate over Dostoevsky's spiritual philosophy

A Fallen Idol Is Still a God Elizabeth Allen,2006-10-26 A Fallen Idol Is Still a God elucidates the historical distinctiveness and significance of the seminal nineteenth century Russian poet playwright and novelist Mikhail Iurevich Lermontov 1814-1841 It does so by demonstrating that Lermontov's works illustrate the condition of living in an epoch of transition Lermontov's particular epoch was that of post Romanticism a time when the twilight of Romanticism was dimming but the dawn of Realism had yet to appear Through close and comparative readings the book explores the singular metaphysical psychological ethical and aesthetic ambiguities and ambivalences that mark Lermontov's works and tellingly reflect the transition out of Romanticism and the nature of post Romanticism Overall the book reveals that although confined to his transitional epoch Lermontov did not succumb to it instead he probed its character and evoked its historical import And the book concludes that Lermontov's works have resonance for our transitional era in the early twenty first century as well Reception of Gogol' in English-language Literary Criticism Moonhwang Kim,1994 Russian Literature--overview and Bibliography Gene V. Palmer,2002 The great names of Russian literature read like a who's who of great names in the world literature Dostoyevsky Tolstoy Pushkin Chekhov Bunin Pasternak Solzhenitsyn But there are only a handful of the legions of extraordinary writers that formed the basis of Russian literature Russian literature is a rich tapestry reflecting life in a complex world of political turmoil religious fervour climate extremes and conditions for daily life which would stupefy the average European or American This book presents an overview of Russian literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography including English language sources accessed by subject author and titles indexes Russian Novelists in the Age of Tolstoy and Dostoevsky J. Alexander Ogden, Judith E. Kalb, 2001 Provides a detailed portrait of the styles concerns and historical involvement of the novel in Russia in the second half of the nineteenth century representing an artistic range from master stylists to those who were more a part of popular culture and are important as a reflection of the flavor of the era rather than as artistic exemplars Canadian - American Slavic Studies, 1991 A quarterly journal devoted to Russia and East Europe The Cambridge Companion to the Classic Russian Novel Malcolm V. Jones, Robin Feuer Miller, 1998-04-30 Many Russian novels of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries have made a huge impact not only inside the boundaries of their own country but across the western world The Cambridge Companion to the Classic Russian Novel offers a thematic account of these novels in fourteen newly commissioned essays by prominent European and North American scholars There are chapters on the city the countryside politics satire religion psychology philosophy the romantic realist and modernist traditions and technique gender and theory In this context the work of Pushkin Dostoevsky Tolstoy Turgenev Bulgakov Nabokov Pasternak and Solzhenitsyn among others is described and discussed There is a chronology and guide to further reading all quotations are in English This volume will be invaluable not only for students and scholars but for anyone interested in the Russian novel
