Paul Judaism And Judgment According To Deeds:

Paul, Judaism, and Judgment According to Deeds Kent L. Yinger, 1999-04-22 Why does judgment according to deeds produce no discernible theological tension for Paul the apostle of justification by faith For students of his writings paradox incoherence or eschatological tension come more readily to mind Paul felt no such theological tension because there was none neither within his own soteriology nor in that of the Judaism from which he learned to speak of judgment according to deeds For both salvation is wholly by God's grace and the saved will be repaid i.e. saved or condemned in accordance with what they have done Thus Paul can promise eternal life to those who do good while threatening wrath upon the disobedient Rom 2:6-11 and without undermining justification by faith This thorough 1999 examination of second temple and Pauline texts interacts with discussions of covenantal nomism justification and the new perspective on Paul to explore the Jewishness of the apostle's theology

Paul, Judaism, and the Gentiles Francis Watson, 2007-09-14 This book is novel in its questioning of the adequacy of interpreting Paul from the perspective of the Reformation and in its application of sociological methods to the New Testament

Theology of the New Testament Frank Thielman, 2005 A basic resource for serious teachers pastors scholars or lay people interested in learning about the theology of the New Testament Provided by publisher

Law and Ethics in Early Judaism and the New Testament Stephen Westerholm, 2017-10-20 Pious Jews of the Second Temple period sought to conform their lives to Torah the law God had given Israel Their different sects disagreed however on how to interpret particular laws and even on the question of who had the authority to interpret them Jesus and his earliest followers while focusing primarily on what they believed God was doing in their own day were repeatedly confronted with issues raised by its relation to God's prior revelation in Torah This volume contains studies by Stephen Westerholm devoted to the meaning and place of Torah in Early Judaism as well as to New Testament understandings particularly those of the gospels and Pauline literature Attention is also given to the New Perspective on Paul to recent discussions of justification and Paul's relation to Judaism and to aspects of the transmission of Jesus tradition among his earliest followers

The Pastoral Epistles and the New Perspective on Paul Daniel Wayne Roberts, 2021-08-31 The so called New Perspective on Paul has become a provocative way of understanding Judaism as a pattern of religion characterized by covenantal nomism which stands in contrast to the traditional Lutheran position that argues that the Judaism against which Paul responded was legalistic This new perspective of first century Judaism has remarkably changed the landscape of Pauline studies but it has done so in relative isolation from the Pastoral Epistles which are considered by most critical scholarship to be pseudonymous Because of this lack of interaction with the Pastoral Epistles this study seeks to test the hermeneutic of the New Perspective on Paul from a canonical perspective This study is not a polemic against the New Perspective on Paul but an attempt to test its hermeneutic within the Pastoral Epistles Four basic tenets of the New Perspective on Paul taken from the writings of E.P. Sanders N.T. Wright and James D.G. Dunn are identified and utilized to choose the passages in the Pastoral Epistles to be studied to test the New Perspective s hermeneutic outside undisputed Paul The four tenets are as follows Justification Salvation Law and Works Paul s View of Judaism and the Opponents Based on these tenets the passages considered are 1 Tim 1 6 16 2 3 7 2 Tim 1 3 8 12 and Titus 3 3 7 Paul and the Gospels Michael F. Bird, Joel Willits, 2013-05-01 This volume which collects together the work of several established scholars attempts to situate the Apostle Paul the Pauline writings and the earliest Christian Gospels together in the context of early Christianity It addresses the issue of how the Christianity depicted in and represented by the individual Gospels relates to the vision of Christianity represented by Paul and the Pauline writings This raises such questions as to what extent did Paul influence the canonical and non canonical Gospels In what way are the Gospels reactions to Paul and his legacy A comparison of the Gospels and Paul on topics such as Old Testament Law Gentile mission Christology and early church leadership structures represents a fruitful area of study While a number of volumes have appeared that attempt to assess the relationship between the historical Jesus and the Apostle Paul relatively few studies on Paul and the Gospels have been published This volume excellently fills this gap in New Testament Studies and makes a valuable contribution to studies on Christian Origins Pauline research and the Gospels Grace and Agency in Paul and Second Temple Judaism Kyle Wells, 2014-09-11 Following recent intertextual studies Kyle B Wells examines how descriptions of heart transformation in Deut 30 Jer 31 32 and Ezek 36 informed Paul and his contemporaries articulations about grace and agency Beyond advancing our understanding of how these restoration narratives were interpreted in the LXX the Dead Sea Literature Baruch Jubilees 2 Baruch 4 Ezra and Philo Wells demonstrates that while most Jews in this period did not set divine and human agency in competition with one another their constructions differed markedly and this would have contributed to vehement disagreements among them While not sui generis in every respect Paul s own convictions about grace and agency appear radical due to the way he reconfigures these concepts in relation to Christ Paul's New Perspective Garwood P. Anderson, 2016-09-29 The debate between the Old and New perspectives on Paul has reached a stalemate But what if Paul s own theological perspective developed over time Starting with the teaser that both camps are right but not all the time Garwood Anderson unfolds a new proposal for overcoming the deadlock infusing new energy into the quest for understanding Paul s mind and letters The Psalms of Solomon and the Messianic Ethics of Paul Frantisek Abel, 2016-07-04 Frantisek Abel explores one of the topical issues of Paul s theology namely the role and influence of the Jewish Pseudo epigraphs literature written during Greek and early Roman periods 4th century BCE to the 2nd century CE on Paul s theological thinking Within this corpus the idea of eschatological concepts such as the concept regarding the coming of the Messiah and the Last Judgment in particular arises frequently It is similar in the case of the Psalms of Solomon with the Last Judgment as the main topic of this pseudepigraphon Through close analysis and exploration of particular parts of this work the author proposes that this deuterocanonical writing could form a considerable background for the proper understanding of Paul s messianic ethics From this point of view Paul s teaching on justification should be understood as one that is reflective of God's grace while at the same time expressing faith and deeds as necessary for salvation

Paul's Three Paths to Salvation Gabriele Boccaccini, 2020-09-29 We no longer need to separate Paul from Judaism in order to claim his Christianness writes Gabriele Boccaccini nor do we need to separate him from the early Jesus movement in order to state his Jewishness With this guiding principle Boccaccini unpacks the implications of Paul's belonging simultaneously to Judaism and Christianity to arrive at the surprising and provocative conclusion that there are in fact three paths to salvation For Jews adherence to Torah For gentiles good works according to conscience and natural law For all sinners forgiveness through faith in Jesus Christ Paul's Three Paths to Salvation is an attempt to reconcile the many facets of Paul's complex identity while reclaiming him from accusations of intolerance Boccaccini's work in reestablishing Paul as a messenger of God's mercy to sinners is an important contribution to the ongoing conversation about Paul's place in the contemporary pluralistic world
