Davorin Peterlin

Pauls Present:

Paul and Money Verlyn Verbrugge, Keith R. Krell, 2015-06-23 The apostle Paul one of the most prominent figures in the early Jesus movement had a lot to say about money His letters deal with real people as they lived their Christian lives in the Greco Roman world He finds it necessary to address those who are rich in this present world 1 Tim 6 17 But he also has to address those do not want to work for whatever reason and are idle and disruptive 2 Thess 3 6 Moreover whereas most churches today have a certain socio economic homogeneity some of Paul s churches had a combination of upper class wealthy people and lower class slaves worshiping side by side and it inevitably created friction esp 1 Cor 11 17 34 During the past twenty years a significant amount of research has been done on class consciousness in the Greco Roman world and on the significance of Paul s fund raising venture for the poor among the Lord s people in Jerusalem the collection for his ministry Relying on the surprising results of current Pauline scholarship and a careful exegesis of a variety of New Testament texts this book offers a thorough investigation of the apostle Paul s sayings and dealings with money Christ in the

Letters of Paul Hendrikus Boers, 2012-02-14 This study addresses the centrality of Christ in Paul s thought recognizing at the same time that he does not express the meaning of Christ as an existing teaching Christ as a person not a teaching determines Paul s thinking for himself and in his reasoning with his readers Christ comes to expression in Paul as the explication of the fundamental reality for himself and for his readers He develops his thoughts about Christ in each case anew as expressions of the Lord who determines his life and the lives of his readers In his reasoning with his readers he expects them to become aware of Christ as the one who determines them in their new lives as believers Philippians

Paul's Letter to the Churches Encouraging the Believer Practical Christianity Foundation, 2020-08-08 Encouraging the Believer Paul wrote this letter to the church in Philippi because he remembered them fondly and rejoiced in the relationship he had with them He encouraged the Philippian Christians to follow Christ s example living out their salvation in unity humility and selfless service to others He wanted them to understand the evil of the world in which they lived He encouraged them to press onward toward the finishline forgetting that which remained behind New Creation in Paul's Letters and Thought

Moyer V. Hubbard, 2002-07-11 As a biblical motif new creation resonates throughout the pages of the Jewish and Christian scriptures and occupies a central place in the apostle Paul s vision of the Christian life Yet the biblical and extra biblical occurrences of this theme vary widely in meaning referring to either a new cosmos a new community or a new individual Beginning with the Old Testament and working through the important texts of Second Temple Judaism Moyer V Hubbard focuses on how the motif functions in the argument strategy and literary structure of these documents highlighting its role as the solution to the perceived plight He then explores in detail which senses of the term Paul intends in Galatians 6 15 and 2 Corinthians 5 17 concluding that new creation in Paul s letters describes the Spirit wrought newness of the person in Christ and is fundamentally anthropological in orientation Opening Paul's Letters Patrick Gray, 2012-03-01 It is sometimes easy to forget that the books of the Bible are not really books at all but individual documents composed in a wide array of literary genres This clear concise and accessible text on the Pauline Letters orients beginning students to the genre in which Paul writes The book compares and contrasts Paul s letters with ancient and modern letters revealing the distinctive conventions forms and purposes of Paul s Epistles It focuses on the literary genre of the letter in ancient Greece and Rome providing an overview of subjects strategies and concerns of immediate relevance for readers who wish to understand Paul in his ancient context Discussion questions and sidebars are included Paul's Letter to the Philippians in the Light of Disunity in the Church Davorin Peterlin,1995 This study provides a new perspective on the contents of Philippians by investigating the wider context of disunity in the church which focused on the issue of financial support for Paul Paul's Message and Ministry in Covenant Perspective Scott J Hafemann,2015-08-27 Erudite and authoritative Paul s Message and Ministry in Covenant Perspective is the fruit of twenty five years of scholarship about the theology and life of the apostle Paul now made available for the first time to a wider audience Confronting the questions raised by the history of Pauline thought since F C Baur Scott J Hafemann s essays focus on how Paul s self understanding shaped everything from his message to the driving force behind his ministry and his consequent call to suffer for the sake of his churches Hafemann s work reveals that Paul s views of redemption of his own redemptive mission and of the life of the redeemed all derived from a central point his eschatological conviction that the purpose of the new covenant established by Jesus was to prepare the way for when Christ returns on Judgement Day St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans John William Colenso,1863 Re-digging Art's Foundations David Thistlethwaite,2024-11-19 The experience of looking at contemporary art can be baffling even alienating But good art Thistlethwaite asserts makes you feel more human not less and certainly does not undermine your ability to make judgments Too often we have been told it s all so subjective and this has permitted purveyors of ugliness and the second rate to occupy the public square without hindrance But beauty goodness and truth far from being the ragged tatters of a civilization in its death throes are in reality perfectly objective and thrillingly real Everything depends on what sort of world we are living in whether a good God s good creation though marred or one that is according to expert opinion pointless and meaningless The twelve essays here show how a central core of ideas works out when different questions are asked and in one longer narrative essay how they were arrived at The foundations that need re digging for art are discovered in common sense the Bible and a little theology One aim of the book is to bridge the gap between Bible and art and by so doing to liberate art viewers and another is to free art makers into truthful and powerful real world connections Faith, Obedience, and Perseverance Don Garlington,2009-06-01 Intended as sequel to the author s early study The Obedience of Faith A Pauline Phrase in Historical Context this book explores the interlocking themes of faith obedience and perseverance in the letter to the Romans Don Garlington argues that Paul s phrase the obedience of faith is designed to say two things at the same time that is an obedience which consists in faith and which is the outgrowth of faith s commitment to Jesus Christ

The obedience of faith thus articulates both the inception of Christian existence and its continuation in the perseverance of the believer. The author reflects on Romans 2:22's allegation of disobedience/sacrilege on the part of Israel. Since Paul's conception of faith's obedience stands in stark relief to the unbelieving disobedience of his Jewish contemporaries, it is only against the backdrop of his indictment of Israel that aspects of his teaching emerge with tolerable clarity. Garlington also examines Romans 2:13: only the doers of the law will be justified in eschatological judgment. Thus there is in Paul's theology the idea of a future justification of the people of God which forms an analogue to their present justification. And it is none other than the obedience of faith which provides the link between the two moments of justification. Romans 5 is focused on its portrayal of Christ as the obedient last Adam who ensures the obedience of faith of his people. An exegesis of Romans 7:14-25 approaches the obedience of faith from the angle of the Christian's experience of the onslaught of the powers of this present evil age. The ideals of the age to come as set out before are seen to be tempered by the realism of this period of overlapping aeons. Finally, the author reflects on the theological and practical significance of the exegetical materials, including a discussion of justification and sanctification in Christian thought.
