Signs, Solidarities, & Sociology

Blasco José Sobrinho, 2001-07-17 Signs Solidarities Sociology addresses the formation and fragmentation of identity in today's postmodern world. Informed by the conceptual convergence in the theories of Durkheim, Peirce, Mead, and Lacan, this book surveys the range of twentieth-century sociology to deconstruct those favored nostrums of subjective meaning, personal power, and autonomous selfhood that comprise its semantics. Revealed beneath this semantic screen is the triad of pragmatic codes: premodern affiliation, modern calibration, and postmodern globalization that govern the social construction of the self. While the ill-comprehended confluence of these three signification codes in the present world situation can indeed fragment personal identity, their formal structural linkages as shown in this book may inform a truly postmodern, globally applicable science of culture.

Roll Me Away Alan N. Webber, 2023-09-27

Tim Harrison is back years away from his problems in Whipping Post. He's now a company driver for Saxon Brothers Trucking in Dallas, Texas. He has settled down on a ranch outside of the town of Cave Creek, Arizona. He and his dog Rory are assigned a steady route between El Paso, Texas, and Tijuana, Mexico, but Tim's still fighting demons from the rape and murder of his wife. When a fellow Saxon Brothers trucker is murdered by a theft ring working out of El Paso, Texas, Tim's old buddy JD Tolliver gets involved in hunting down the gang. In the process, JD winds up in the hospital. Now, with two employees having been attacked by the same theft ring and no word from the police, the owner of Saxon's, John Saxon, gets involved. He enlists Tim's aid, pulling him back into a situation Tim is not sure he wants to become involved with. He has other things on his mind, like possibly a new love life.

A Prophet in Debate Karl

Möller, 2003-01-01 An investigation of the literary structure and rhetorical challenge that prompted the book's production. Möller argues that the book of Amos captures and presents the debate between Amos and his eighth-century audience. When read in the light of Israel's fall, the presentation of Amos struggling and failing to convince his contemporaries of the imminent divine punishment functions as a powerful warning to subsequent Judaeans readers.

The Emergent Self William

Hasker, 2015-11-20 In The Emergent Self, William Hasker joins one of the most heated debates in analytic philosophy: that over the nature of mind. His provocative and clearly written book challenges physicalist views of human mental functioning and advances the concept of mind as an emergent individual. Hasker begins by mounting a compelling critique of the dominant paradigm in philosophy of mind, showing that contemporary forms of materialism are seriously deficient in confronting crucial aspects of experience. He further holds that popular attempts to explain the workings of mind in terms of mechanistic physics cannot succeed. He then criticizes the two versions of substance dualism most widely accepted today: Cartesian and Thomistic, and presents his own theory of emergent dualism. Unlike traditional substance dualisms, Hasker's theory recognizes the critical role of the brain and nervous system for mental processes. It also avoids the mechanistic reductionism characteristic of recent materialism. Hasker concludes by addressing the topic of survival following bodily death. After demonstrating the failure of materialist views to offer a plausible and coherent account of that possibility, he considers the implications of emergentism for notions of resurrection and the afterlife Forestry Handbook Karl F. Ashok, Sujay Narumanchi, Devashish Shankar, 2024-03-26 The mathematical paradigms that underlie deep learning typically start out as hard to read academic papers often leaving engineers in the dark about how their models actually function Math and Architectures of Deep Learning bridges the gap between theory and practice laying out the math of deep learning side by side with practical implementations in Python and PyTorch Written by deep learning expert Krishnendu Chaudhury you ll peer inside the black box to understand how your code is working and learn to comprehend cutting edge research you can turn into practical applications about the technology

It is important to understand how your deep learning models work both so that you can maintain them efficiently and explain them to other stakeholders. Learning mathematical foundations and neural network architecture can be challenging but the payoff is big. You will be free from blind reliance on pre-packaged DL models and able to build, customize and re-architect for your specific needs. And when things go wrong you will be glad you can quickly identify and fix problems about the book. Math and Architectures of Deep Learning sets out the foundations of DL in a way that is both useful and accessible to working practitioners. Each chapter explores a new fundamental DL concept or architectural pattern explaining the underpinning mathematics and demonstrating how they work in practice with well-annotated Python code. You will start with a primer of basic algebra, calculus and statistics working your way up to state-of-the-art DL paradigms taken from the latest research. By the time you are done you will have a combined theoretical insight and practical skills to identify and implement DL architecture for almost any real-world challenge. Journal of Rehabilitation Research and Development, 2008

Moonshadow: Rise of the Ninja Simon Higgins, 2024-09-24. In the moonlight the explosive fast draw became a horizontal streak of silver flashing momentarily from the cover of the shadow. The tip of Moonshadow's sword ambushed the lurking foe who stood still drawing his own weapon. It is the dawn of an age of peace in medieval Japan and a power-hungry warlord is plotting to plunge the nation into a deadly civil war using a secret weapon from the West. Enter Moonshadow, the newest and youngest agent for the Grey Light Order, a covert brotherhood of shinobi ninja spy warriors who work for the shogun. For his first mission Moonshadow is sent on a perilous journey to capture the plans for the secret weapon. Can Moonshadow defeat the evil warlord, rogue samurai, professional killers and another ninja spy to save his country from violent chaos? Or will his first mission also be his last? This thrilling ninja adventure by Simon Higgins, an expert Japanese swordsman, combines gripping action, humor, hold-your-breath suspense and even a bit of magic for an exciting and fast-paced read. Journal of

Rehabilitation R & D, 2008 Journal of Rehabilitation Research & Development, 2008 Science in the Early Years Pat Brunton, Linda Thornton, 2009-11-13. Giving early years practitioners and students the confidence to effectively support scientific exploration and investigation with young children, this book explains the science behind young children's knowledge and understanding of the world. Linking theory to good early years practice, the emphasis throughout the book is on recognizing young children as competent, creative thinkers and building on their ideas. The reader is encouraged to think carefully about the role of the adult in supporting child-initiated learning and discovery by providing open-ended resources, asking productive questions and observing carefully. The authors provide essential background information for all the key areas of scientific knowledge supported by practical ideas suitable for babies, toddlers and children aged 3 to 5 years. For each of these ideas, practice and theory are linked by highlighting the skills, attitudes and dispositions to observe and the questions to ask to challenge young children's thinking and plan for the next stages in their learning. Chapters cover the place of science in early years curricula in the UK, the processes of science and the role of the adult in supporting young children's scientific learning using open ended resources to create a science rich environment essential background knowledge covering all areas of early years science ideas to use as starting points for exploration and investigation indoors and outdoors pointers for observational assessment and planning suppliers of resources and equipment By making clear links to practice and providing ideas to use with babies and toddlers as well as with 3 5 year old children this book enables the reader to fully exploit the potential for exploration and investigation in any early years setting Pat Brunton and Linda Thornton are both Education Consultants based in Cheltenham They run their own training and consultancy company associates and edit Early Years Update
