Walls, 2025-03-18 Anyone in the Christian church today who is paying attention knows that Roman Catholics are on the march to win converts But what may be surprising is that many of the persons targeted for conversion are not unbelievers and secularists but rather Christians in other traditions particularly evangelical Protestants Those involved in this mission are themselves often converts from evangelical churches and they are zealous to welcome other believers home to the Church of Rome This book provides a variety of reasons to think twice before taking the plunge and swimming the Tiber Among them are some historical considerations that are often ignored or even suppressed by the zealous evangelists for Rome There are also dubious claims by John Henry Newman the famous nineteenth century convert that are often advanced without sufficient critical scrutiny Moreover converts not infrequently take on the role of amateur theologians and advance highly simplistic claims about a variety of theological matters in popular books that are remarkably successful in terms of sales and publicity This volume examines these and other similar claims and subjects them to the critical analysis they demand

The Resurrection of the Roman Catholic Church Griff Ruby, 2002 For nearly twenty centuries the Roman Catholic Church withstood all the currents of change and history and maintained a closely guarded orthodoxy which has always served as the basis and center of all Christianity Yet it is as if all of that has been just arbitrarily swept away in the few years since Vatican II Given what the Church has always taught about itself being indefectible how could this have happened Did that Council have something to do with that terrible loss of faith Can the real Catholicism be found today and if so where The shocking answer to this once seen and truly understood is as every bit as glorious as the original resurrection of Christ Himself a tremendous source of faith and inspiration It is a broad based longstanding miracle passing right before our eyes have we but the Grace to see it for what it is
