Encyclopedia of the Roman Empire Matthew Bunson, 2014-05-14 Not much has happened in the Roman Empire since 1994 that required the first edition to be updated but Bunson a prolific reference and history author has revised it incorporated new findings and thinking and changed the dating style to C E Common Era and B C E Before Common Era For the 500 years from Julius Caesar and the Gallic Wars in 59 51 B C E to the fall of the empire in the west in 476 C E he discusses personalities terms sites and events There is very little cross referencing

Equal at the Creation Joseph Martos, Pierre Hégy, 1998-01-01 As an unabashedly sexist institution that has long been rooted in patriarchal ideals the Christian church has few Written by recognized experts in church history the articles in this book take a close look at women s status in key periods

Early Christian Women and Pagan Opinion Margaret Y. MacDonald, 1996-10-03 This is a study of how women figured in public reaction to the church from New Testament times to Christianity s encounter with the pagan critics of the second century CE The reference to a hysterical woman was made by the most prolific critic of Christianity Celsus He was referring to a follower of Jesus probably Mary Magdalene who was at the centre of efforts to create and promote belief in the resurrection MacDonald draws attention to the conviction emerging from the works of several pagan authors that female initiative was central to Christianity s development she sets out to explore the relationship between this and the common Greco Roman belief that women were inclined towards excesses in religion The findings of cultural anthropologists of Mediterranean societies are examined in an effort to probe the societal values that shaped public opinion and early church teaching Concerns expressed in New Testament and early Christian texts about the respectability of women and even generally about their behaviour are seen in a new light when one appreciates that outsiders focused on early church women and understood their activities as a reflection of the group as a whole
