Romanesque Bronzes Church Portals In Med:

Monte Cassino in the Middle Ages Herbert Bloch, 1986 The monastery of Monte Cassino founded by St Benedict in the sixth century was the cradle of Western monasticism It became one of the vital centers of culture and learning in Europe At the height of its influence in the eleventh and early twelfth centuries two of its abbots including Desiderius and one of its monks became popes and it controlled a vast network of dependencies churches monasteries villages and farms especially in central and southern Italy Herbert Bloch's study the product of forty years of research takes as its starting point the twelfth century bronze doors of the basilica of the abbey the most significant relic of the medieval structure The panels of these doors are inscribed with a list of more than 180 of the abbey's possessions Mr Bloch has supplemented this roster with lists found in papal and imperial privileges and other documents The heart of the book is a detailed investigation of the nearly 700 dependencies of Monte Cassino from the sixth to the twelfth century and beyond No comparable study of this or any other great medieval institution has ever before been undertaken Ironically it was the bombing of 1944 which destroyed the monastery that led to an unexpected revelation the discovery on the reverse side of some panels of the doors of magnificent engraved figures of patriarchs and apostles These proved to be remnants of the church portal ordered from Constantinople by Desiderius in the eleventh century which marked the beginning of the grandiose reconstruction of the abbey and its church the latter to become a model for many other churches In order to solve the riddle of the doors of Monte Cassino Bloch has investigated other bronze doors of Byzantine origin in Italy and the doors of the great Italian master Oderisius of Benevento as well as those of S Clemente a Casauria and of the cathedral of Benevento Also included is a study of the political and cultural impact of Byzantium on Monte Cassino and a chapter on Constantinus Africanus Saracen turned monk one of the most interesting figures in the history of medieval medicine The text is sumptuously illustrated with 193 plates most of the more than 300 illustrations have never before been published This three volume work with its nine detailed indexes offers a wealth of information for scholars in many different fields included six hives containing some 300 000 honeybees which would provide a unique flavor for his restaurant's culinary masterpieces Yet Garcelon's dream was much grander than simply creating a private chef's garden he wanted the honeybee garden to serve as a bond among people Soon the staff of the hotel the guests local horticulturists and beekeeping experts formed a community around the bees and the garden which not only raised vegetables herbs and honey to be served in the hotel but also provided healthy food to the homeless shelter across the street at St Bartholomew's Church Through her meticulous research and interviews with culinary glitterati entomologists horticulturists and urban beekeepers Leslie Day leads us on a unique insider's tour of this little known aspect of the natural world of New York City She familiarizes us with the history of the architectural and cultural gem that is the Waldorf and introduces us to the lives of Chef Garcelon and New York City's master beekeeper Andrew Cot Day an urban naturalist and incurable New Yorker tells us of the garden's development shares delectable honey based recipes from the hotel's chefs and mixologist and relates the fate of the hotel in the wake of the Waldorf's change of ownership During our journey we learn quite a bit about apiaries as well as insect and flower biology through the lives of the bees that travel freely around the city in search of nectar pollen and resin This absorbing narrative unwraps the heart within the glamour of one of the world's most beloved cities while assuring us that nature can thrive in the ultimate urban environment when its denizens care enough to foster that connection
