McCarthy, 2019-01-24 Romanticism and Speculative Realism features a range of scholars working at the intersection of literary poetics and philosophy It considers how the writing of the Romantic era reconceptualizes the human imagination the natural world and the language that correlates them in radical ways that can advance current speculative debates concerning new ontologies and new materialisms In their wide ranging examinations of canonical and non canonical romantic writers the scholars gathered here rethink the connections between the human and non human world to envision speculative modes of social being and ecological politics Spanning historical and national frameworks from historical romanticism to contemporary post romantic ecology and from British and German romanticism to global modernity these essays examine life in all its varied forms in and beyond the Anthropocene      Exploring the Relationship Between Romanticism and Realism Throughout Photography Rebecca Jordan, 2016      The Relationship of Romanticism and Realism in the Poets of the Middle-west Bertha R. Ott, 1930      The Hauerwas Reader Stanley Hauerwas, 2001-07-23 A Stanley Hauerwas Reader including Hauerwas essays and excerpts from his books and monographs intended to provide a comprehensive introduction to his work      Modern Chinese Literature in the May Fourth Era Merle Goldman, 1977 One of the most creative and brilliant episodes in modern Chinese history the cultural and literary flowering that takes the name of the May Fourth Movement is the subject of this comprehensive and insightful book This is the first study of modern Chinese literature that shows how China's Confucian traditions were combined with Western influences to create a literature of new values and consciousness for the Chinese people Joseph Conrad Ruth Matilda Stauffer,1922 Emma Goldman Kathy E. Ferguson,2011-04-16 Emma Goldman has often been read for her colorful life story her lively if troubled sex life and her wide ranging political activism Few have taken her seriously as a political thinker even though in her lifetime she was a vigorous public intellectual within a global network of progressive politics Engaging Goldman as a political thinker allows us to rethink the common dualism between theory and practice scrutinize stereotypes of anarchism by placing Goldman within a fuller historical context recognize the remarkable contributions of anarchism in creating public life and open up contemporary politics to the possibilities of transformative feminism Rebecca Harding Davis and American Realism Sharon M. Harris,1991-06 From the late 1860s until her death in 1910 Rebecca Harding Davis was one of the best known writers in America She broke into print as a young woman in the 1860s with Life in the Iron Mills which established her as one of the pioneers of American realism She developed a literary theory of the commonplace nearly two decades before William Dean Howells shaped his own version of the concept Yet in spite of her importance to the literary and popular culture of her time she has been for the most part ignored by scholars Rebecca Harding Davis and American Realism helps to change that Romantic Era Marcel Brion,1966 Art of the Romantic Era ,1966 Romanticism, Realism and the Lines of Mimesis Polly Dickson,2024-07-31 Examines the role occupied by the senses and the self in approaches to literary mimesis in nineteenth century European literature Offers the first full set of comparative readings of works by E T A Hoffmann and Honor de Balzac arguing that Balzac was a keen and sensitive reader of Hoffmann's works Introduces little known primary materials by these two canonical authors including visual material such as a hand drawn line copied out by both Hoffmann and Balzac from Laurence Sterne's Tristram Shandy Makes the case for a new phenomenological reading of mimesis emphasizing the role of the senses and the self in representation by arguing simultaneously for a renewed understanding of the relationship between Romanticism and Realism Brings its focus to the motif of the line in order to open up an interdisciplinary approach to mimesis understanding writing as a practice that lies alongside and crosses over with the act of drawing and other forms of mark making Since Plato's Republic mimesis the artwork's tacit claim to reflect or imitate real life has faced a near constant stream of assaults being accused of naturalising a supposedly uncomplicated relationship between world and fiction Lines of Mimesis offers a revisionary account of mimesis Specifically it proposes a rethinking of the representational attitudes of two literary schools usually understood to be at odds with one another Romanticism and Realism through close readings of writings and drawings made by two figures usually taken to be proponents of those schools respectively E T A Hoffmann and Honor de Balzac Across these readings Dickson argues that a more capacious understanding of mimesis is achieved when we understand it to pertain not to the reduplication of objects in the world but to a negotiation of the subject's sensory entwinement with those objects. This new understanding can in turn more closely illuminate an artwork's own reflections on its relationship to the world, shedding light on the entanglements and crossovers between Romanticism and Realism.
